FREAK TORNADO STRIKES WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA

ROGERS GLAD DAWES HAS GROWN UP AND WEARS LONG PANTS

(Special to The News)
BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., June 28.—Vice Democracy! The Charley Dawes! Among all the diplomats gathered at King George's imperial court Charley was the only one that didn't wear rompers.
He wouldn't bare his Chicago shins to the crowned heads of the British empire.
Among all the satin slippers of the other moles, his long and increased pants stood out for a diadem.

It was not only a victory for modesty, but a godsend for the people who sell material by the yard. Even the women, they say, followed him. But not even an ankle would be revealed.
Long live Charley Dawes and longer live his long breeches!
Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

PA NEW OBSERVES

The New Wilmington road improvement is being pushed steadily, and when completed will be one of the finest road improvements made in the county in some time. In addition to widening the road to fifty feet, the sharp curves have been made more gradual.

One of the best views of the great industrial plants of the city obtainable from the top of the new Jameson Memorial Hospital. One can see up and down the Valley of the Shenango for several miles in either direction, and on a clear day
the view is wonderful.

A lot of new sidewalks have been put down by the city this summer, in sections where there is a great amount of travel by foot and where property owners have neglected to do the work.

It begins to look as if the citizens of the East Side will have to wait until next summer, before the new park projected on the old cemetery site on East Washington street is ready for use.

Pa News observed three autos parked in front of the First M. E. church on North Jefferson street the other day, which at first appearance looked as if they bore Pennsylvania licenses. Closer scrutiny, however, revealed the fact that one was from West Virginia and another from Florida. Licenses of these three states are almost similar in color.

Speaking of auto licenses, the state of Kentucky has injected a little advertising in their plates. The plates are black with white lettering, and bear the words "Kentucky Promotes Progress."

In spite of the fact that firecrackers are taboo here, Pa News observes that a few are being sneaked in and fired off surreptitiously, in different sections of the city.

One of the finest lawns in the city is being planted at the Jameson Memorial hospital. When it is completed, it will attract the eye of every tourist travelling through the city, via the New Wilmington road.

Farmington Is Reported Scene Of Storm Havoc

Reports Received That Cyclone Strikes East Of Uniontown

RELIEF PARTIES ARE DISPATCHED

Kane Also Struck By Cyclone —Damage Is Near $150,000

A freak June tornado which ripped across Western Pennsylvania in a northeasterly direction, accompanied by a heavy rainfall, dipped downward, wreaking its vengeance at Farmington, in Fayette county, and again at Kane, far to the north in McKean county.

The entire western portion of the state was deluged by a sudden rain, and crops were beaten down with heavy damage.

The greatest damage worked by the tornado was reported at Kane, where $150,000 damage resulted from the storm.

Property loss at Farmington, it is believed, would be considerably less than at Kane.

No estimates were available as to the loss to farmers throughout Western Pennsylvania.

The tornado struck first in Kane in the business section, cutting a swath about 200 feet wide and made its way to the edge of the town.

Residents not living in the path of the twister knew nothing of it until they surveyed the damage, so sudden was its appearance.
Roofs were tossed about in the business section, telephone poles were levelled tangling and disrupting communication, and heavy loss was suffered by merchants whose windows were blown out, exposing valuable stock to the driving rain that accompanied the wind.

Uniontown, Pa., June 28.—A cyclone was reported to have struck the Farmington district, ten miles east of here, today, unroofing houses, twisting off trees and leveling poles and wires.

Residents of Chestnut Ridge, near Farmington, arriving here by automobile, described the storm as a "whirling cloud" that swept the top of the mountain region.

Germans Observe Treaty Signing

Tenth Anniversary Of Treaty
Of Versailles Signing Celebrated

ENTIRE NATION IS IN MOURNING

By OTTO D. TOLISCHUS
International News Service Staff

BERLIN, June 28.—Germany observed the tenth anniversary of the signing of the treaty of Versailles today with a day of mourning in solemn reparation of the accusation that Germany alone was responsible for the outbreak of the World war.
President Von Hindenburg and all the members of the German cabinet signed a manifesto declaring the day one of national mourning, protesting against the stigma of war guilt contained in the treaty, and holding that the charge undermines the confidence of other nations.

Public mourning services were held in churches. Mass meetings of protesters by numerous national organizations were held in every community.
Where flags were flown at half mast and draped with ribbons of black. At 3 o'clock this afternoon, exactly ten years since the signing of the treaty, protestant churches were to toll bells of mourning.

Rev. J. L. Petrie Receives Medal For War Service

More than ten years after his discharge from the Canadian Army, the services of Rev. J. L. Petrie, pastor of the Grace M. E. church have been recognized with a medal issued upon the authority of King George. The medal and the accompanying papers were received by Rev. Petrie on Wednesday, June 26.

When the World War was declared in 1914, Rev. Petrie was in Canada, having gone there from his home in Scotland. In 1915 he enlisted with the 70th Canadian Battalion, Infantry. At that time he was not a minister and was assigned as a line soldier.

Father Killed At Loos
While Rev. Petrie, then Private Petrie was on his way to France, his father who had enlisted with a Scotch regiment, was killed at Loos. A brother was assigned to service in India.

To France, Rev. Petrie was assigned to the 51st Battalion and in September 1918 was one of the victims of a German air raid, his injuries being a concussion, from which he has never quite fully recovered. He was invalidated to Epsom, Surrey, England and later returned to France with the renowned 63rd Canadian Battalion, headed by Col. Petrie. In February 1919 Rev. Petrie was honorably discharged from service.

The medal he has received has been a long time finding its owner, but this is due to the fact that Rev. Petrie left Canada shortly after his discharge and came to the United States.

The accompanying paper, received with the medal reads as follows: "His Majesty the King, has been graciously pleased to authorize the issue of the enclosed medal, which is forwarded to you with the compliments of the Honorable, the Minister of National Defence."

POLICE PROBE DEATH OF YOUTH AND GIRL

(International News Service)

GETTYSBURG, Pa., State police today launched probe into the death of Leon Arenz, 21, and his boyhood sweetheart, Genevieve Mummert, 15, of Two Taverns, near here, who were fatally wounded last night in what the girl's father believes to have been a suicide pact.

The victims were found in an automobile on the Hoffman Orphanage road only a stone's throw from Two Taverns, where Ira Mummert, the dead girl's father, keeps the general store.

The boy died instantly, according to authorities, but the girl was still living when found. She died while being removed to the Warner hospital here. The youth is believed to have shot the girl and then turned the pistol on himself.

Police were at a loss in ascribing a possible motive for the apparent murder-suicide pact.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—Ten years ago today the treaty of Versailles was signed. It represented the official ending of the greatest war in history. For ten years before the beginning of that war, the leading nations of the world were engaged in an international race to see which could build the greatest navy and equip the largest army.

The ten years since the ending of the war have witnessed another world

Wet Pavement Causes Car To Skid And Crash Into Two Trees, Then Turn Over

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, June 28.—Two men were killed instantly and four were seriously injured, one possibly fatally, here today when the automobile in which six men were riding to work skidded on a wet pavement, crashed into two trees and overturned in the street.
The accident occurred on a wide curve.

The dead were Patrick Walsh, 25, and William Good, 38, both of Pittsburgh.

Dan Donahoe, 36, was believed to be dying. James Horwood, 28, Francis Kearns, 30, and William Welch, 33, were reported suffering from probable fractures of the skull and crushed bodies.

The automobile was virtually demolished, police said, indicating it had been traveling at a high rate of speed. So terrific was the impact of the machine against the trees that the shoes of several victims were torn from their feet.

Wals and Good were dead when police arrived at the scene of the accident. Donahoe was barely breathing when taken to the hospital.
The car, police learned, skidded on the wet turn, jumped against the first tree over the curb, careened against the second tree and then shot into the street.

Donahoe was pinned beneath the wreckage.
Police said shortly after the accident it was almost impossible yet to tell who was driving the automobile, because of the seriousness of the men's injuries.

Carpenter Dies Result Of Fall

John E. Hutchison, 52, Of Walmo, Is Victim
Of Accident

MISHAP OCCURS
IN ELLWOOD CITY

As the result of injuries received when he fell a distance of twelve feet while working for the Exposit-Construction company on the new Shield apartment building at the corner of Fourth street and Crescent avenue, Ellwood City, John E. Hutchison of Walmo died in the Ellwood City hospital, late Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Hutchison who was a carpenter, was working on the outside of the apartment house, which was formerly the Ellwood library building, when he accidentally slipped and fell striking the back of his head on a stone crushing it in a terrible manner and injuring his neck. He was carried in to the yard of Charles French and an ambulance sent for and then removed to the Ellwood City hospital where he passed away soon after, without regaining consciousness.

The sudden and unexpected death of Mr. Hutchison comes as a severe blow to his immediate family and friends.

Born in Hillsville,
He was born at Hillsville 52 years ago, a son of John and Eliza Sweeney Hutchison. He had lived in this community for a number of years and was well and favorably known. He was a member of the King's Chapel church.

Besides his wife, Mary Anne Cook
Hutchison he leaves three children, Theodore, Harold and Elizabeth, at home, and six grandchildren. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: William A. Hutchison of New Wilmington, Mrs. E. H. Kearsie of Winter avenue, this city, Mrs. John J. Thompson of the Wilmington road, and Thomas A. Hutchison of New Wilmington.

Funeral services will be conducted from his late residence at Walmo, Saturday, June 29, at 3 p. m., D. S. T.
Interment will be made in Oak Park cemetery.

Musketeers" with Martin Jensen,
Mrs. Jensen and William Ulbrich aboard, was still soaring over the field today, having been in the air 59 hours at 11:02 a. m.

They knew nothing of the accident which occurred to Viola Gentry's endurance plane which crashed this morning resulting in death to Jack juries to Miss Gentry.

The ship was refueled at 7 a. m. and at 10:30 a. m. and the "nurse" ship was again preparing to take the air to drop some dris and wood screws with which to repair a break in the fuselage. Jensen asked for the tools in a note dropped from the endurance plane.

(International News Service)

ROOSEVELT FIELD, N. Y., June 28.—Miss Viola Gentry, endurance flier, was probably fatally injured early today when her plane, The Answer, cracked up on the Jericho Turnpike, near Westbury, L. I. Jack Ashcraft, Miss Gentry's co-pilot, died instantly in the crash.

The plane, which had been in the air since 8:49 o'clock last night in an attempt to establish a new refueling endurance record, struck a tree.

"The Answer" was coasting along at a height of 600 feet when it suddenly went into a nose dive, two workmen, who witnessed the accident, said.

Cut Fliers Out Of Plane Nassau county police hurried to the scene with axes and were forced to hack through the plane's cabin in order to reach the fliers. Ashcraft was dead when his body was lifted from the wreckage, while Miss Gentry was unconscious.

As she was being lifted into an ambulance to be taken to the Nassau hospital at Mineola, Miss Gentry remained consciousness long enough to

Coroner Investigating Death

(International News Service)
ERIE, Pa., June 28.—Coroner Daniel Hanley, of Erie county, today began an investigation of the suicide of Kenneth Buchanan, 17-year-old Grove City, Pa., youth, who shot himself to death with a .22 rifle in the Wilson hotel here late yesterday, according to police.

The youth told his parents he was going to Altoona, to look for a job, police said. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buchanan, here today, were unable to explain why the youth came to Erie.

The boy was suffering from ill health, and his death may have been the result, the parents said. Kenneth lost his job in Grove City, the father said.
Apparently the youth had fired only one shot, entering his forehead.

Little boy who at the end of the school term received no prizes, deserving of honorable mention. One day this week laid an egg which measured a fraction over eight inches around the point, seven inches in circumference, and when opened was found to contain another full sized, hard shelled egg.

Mrs. H. Z. Macmillan, Ellwood City, Pa. D. L. Wampum

Pa New was talking to the driver of one of those big buses Thursday. "Well," he said, "we get about four or five miles to the gallon when asked about the consumption of gas. We resolved to keep the family paid-die jumper."

In case you are taking a nice long drive Sunday, try the Franklin, Clarion, East Brady, Rimersburg, back to Butler and New Castle circuit. What beautiful scenery and if our memory is okay, it's about 170 miles.

Bernard Harlan advises that the National Highway between Kansas City and Washington, D. C. is open throughout and in fine condition. Rumors had stated that the route was closed but such allegations were false.

Pa New took a little run out to the Boy Scout camp last night. The road to the camp is fine and it makes a nice little drive. A large number of parents of boys and friends were visitors at this beauty spot during the evening.

Speaking of scout camp there are about a hundred little fellows out there at the present time, and the most of them younger boys. They seem to be living in a perpetual dream world of playing ball, swimming, racing through the fields, and what not. Pa New wouldn't mind a couple of weeks of it himself.

These rainy days are causing plenty of sorrow to New Castle kiddies, too. Pennies having been ruined this week by Jupiter Pluvius, but the putting of raindrops are sweet music to those in charge of getting the municipal golf course and the hospital grounds in shape. The farmers also smile out at a pleasant down pour like today.

Mrs. Mary Ferris, 608 East Washington street and Miss Minnie P. Gieson, 610 East Washington street, also report that they have dahlias in bloom at the present time. Mrs. Ferris' dahlias were planted on May 15.

A new sewer is being laid under the cement bridge at the foot of the hill in New Wilmington. Heretofore large puddles of water remained on this bridge after rain showers but the laying of the new pipes will obviate this nuisance.

Workmen are constantly at work improving the New Castle-Walton de-tour. When the new road to Walton is completed the present detour will be a competitor for the regular traffic.

Nowadays it seems when one moves their household goods they take almost everything on one truck load. Last night we observed a huge van moving slowly up South Mill street, heavily laden with furniture, rugs and whatnot. Even on the very top was a fenced crate in which were several chickens. What else might have gone unseen we couldn't say.

The washing of the postoffice ceiling is almost completed. The work necessitated the erection of very high scaffolding and has been a task requiring several weeks labor. The appearance of the postoffice has been improved greatly by the work.

The rain of last night and this morning got an appreciable handi-cup from the farmers. Reports from different sections of the country were that it was needed badly.

FARMINGTON IS REPORTED SCENE OF STORM HAVOC

office at Farmington more damage was done by the twister, the tele-graph company reported.

Loss of life in the more isolated districts, where the houses were poorly constructed, was feared. Rescue parties were being sent out from here to the stricken district.

Telephone and telephone wires were down east of here.

Scattered, Farmington, Confluence and Chippewa were cut off from communication.

The Rush Service Station, owned by P. O. Cable, and the telephone buildings at Farmington were reported badly damaged.

A hard shower hit Uniontown but there was no wind.

No Loss Of Life

Connellsville, Pa. June 28.—A tornado which struck in the Farmington, Pa. sector today apparently was limited to a small section and no loss of life occurred, it was believed here this afternoon.

Communication lines between here and Farmington, 27 miles distant on the National Pike, were down, but reports were gained from nearby points.

The store of Charles Rush was reported unroofed and stock valued at $8,000 exposed to rain damage, it was reported.

The Cable service station was demolished, and Gwendolyn Cable, daughter of Roy Cable, owner, was slightly injured on the arm, according to word here.

A porch was said to have been blown off the new Bell Telephone building.

A barn belonging to Clifton Coleman was demolished.

No damage was reported at Somerset, and telephone lines between Connellsville and that city were only slightly damaged some lines being down.

A number of telephone poles in the Farmington district were leveled.

The storm apparently hit Farmington about 8 a. m.

Kane Also Struck

Kane, Pa. June 28.—Damage of $150,000 was done here today when a wind of tornado intensity struck Kane and vicinity.

Many houses were unroofed, porches were blown away, a dozen frame garages were flattened, chimneys were blown down and windows were broken.

The area where the twister dipped was approximately 12 blocks square. The path was two blocks wide, extending from Biddle street to Bayard street.

Store windows on Bayard street were smashed and valuable stocks of merchandise subjected to a driving rain that accompanied the wind.

Several persons were reported to have been cut by flying glass, but no serious injuries were recorded.

Planned To Refuel

When The Answer took off last night it had 110 gallons of fuel aboard, sufficient to keep it in the air for 30 hours. A refueling plane, piloted by Paul Dixon of Hartford, Conn., was to make the first contact this morning.

Just last week, Miss Gentry failed in an attempt to set a refueling endurance mark for light aircraft. She was forced to bring her plane to the ground after being aloft for nine hours when she was unable to make contact with the refueling plane.

Jack Ashcraft was well known as a flyer in and a New York. He placed sixth in the race from Spokane to New York last September.

Terrific Impact

The plane struck the tree with a terrific impact and Ashcraft who was at the controls in the forward part of the cabin was killed instantly.

Miss Gentry who was in the rear part of the cabin was unconscious

Severe Storm Forces Cleveland Pair To Land Endurance Plane

CLEVELAND, O., June 28.—A violent rainstorm halted the endurance flight attempt of the monoplanes "City of Cleveland" at 1:40 p. m. today. The plane piloted by Byron Newcomb and Roy Mitchell had taken off at 7:15 p. m. last night.

Elmer Newcomb said he tried to remain aloft despite the storm but that the lightning blinded him. He attempted to ride out the storm by flying low but sheets of rain and clouds made it impossible for him to continue.

Preparations were rushed for a second attempt to break the endurance flight record today.

Planned To Refuel

When The Answer took off last night it had 110 gallons of fuel aboard, sufficient to keep it in the air for 30 hours. A refueling plane, piloted by Paul Dixon of Hartford, Conn., was to make the first contact this morning.

Just last week, Miss Gentry failed in an attempt to set a refueling endurance mark for light aircraft. She was forced to bring her plane to the ground after being aloft for nine hours when she was unable to make contact with the refueling plane.

Jack Ashcraft was well known as a flyer in and a New York. He placed sixth in the race from Spokane to New York last September.

Terrific Impact

The plane struck the tree with a terrific impact and Ashcraft who was at the controls in the forward part of the cabin was killed instantly.

Miss Gentry who was in the rear part of the cabin was unconscious

when she was dragged from the wreckage by Henry Hicks his son Edwin and Henry Balkan. A worker who was exposed from their beds by the crash, as they piled her into an ambulance summoned hurriedly from the hospital however, she regained consciousness long enough to reveal her name.

Little hope was held out for her recovery at the hospital although it was admitted that the exact extent of her injuries could not be determined until later in the day.

Nassau county policemen who hurried to the scene a short time after the crash, found the Answer's tanks dry. At 5:30 a. m. the plane had circled over Roosevelt field and dropped a note requesting that the refueling plane be sent aloft, but explaining they believed that they had sufficient fuel to last them for two hours longer.

When the plane took off shortly after 8 o'clock last night, the flyers believed they carried sufficient gasoline to last them for 25 hours.

Because of the presence in the air of the "Three Musketeers," the plane in which Martin Jensen, his wife, and William Ullrich, also are attempting to set a new endurance record d. Miss Gentry was ordered to keep her ship at an altitude of from 2,000 to 2,500 feet, so she would avoid a mid-air crash with the other plane, instructed to fly a thousand feet lower.

This is the second fatal air accident in the Metropolitan district in the last 24 hours. Three men were killed and two were injured last night when a sightseeing flying boat owned by the Curran Flying Service, crashed in Little Bay Harbor, N. J., while trying to make a forced landing on the water.

QUESTION TWENTY IN MARLOW CRIME

other Boston men had willingly agreed to tell what they knew when picked up by detectives at the Second Avenue-Paulina fight at Yankee Stadium, here last night, but had not anticipated being grilled all night against their wishes.

The Boston quartet had not been arrested but police hoped they might be able to furnish some leads in the search for the two men who lived Marlow from a restaurant here last Monday evening, took him for a ride and threw him out of their automobile to die in the shadow of the tombstones of a cemetery at Flushing, Long Island.

Other persons rounded up during the night and later released included two attractive stylishly-dressed girls, apparently night club entertainers, and a telephone girl said by police to have seen the Broadway racketeer enter the death car with his two supposed friends. The identity of the girls was not revealed.

STAR LORE

AMATEUR TELESCOPE MAKING.

By Arthur DeV. Carpenter.

America is potent with the genius and ambition of budding amateur astronomers. Albert G. Ingalls, of the Scientific American editorial staff, whom the writer recently interviewed, is conducting a department in that distinguished publication for amateur astronomers. As an immediate result, Mr. Ingalls' initial article on home telescope making, more than 350 letters from interested persons throughout America, came to his desk. As a consequent result, on clear nights many scores of amateurs are pointing their personally-built telescopes at the starry heavens and are acquiring intimate knowledge of remote celestial objects. But simple star atlas like Barlow's Guide to the Constellations, and good unaided eyes, are 99 per cent. of needed equipment.

Elisa Must Go.
European Pants News.
Meden Agan.
Sore Labour's Bath.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE (Copyright, 1929, King Features Synd., Inc.)

You can't fool with this powerful nation and Elisa Valerie will soon know it.

Elisa is 15 months old. Her mother died in the hospital at Ellis Island and the baby "an indigent immigrant" will be shipped back to Portugal.

What will become of her when she gets there?

Who will look after her on the big ship President Wilson?

That's Elisa's business. She shouldn't have come here with her mother who died in the shadow of the Statue of Liberty.

The latest news from Europe is that Gen. Dawes, having started Britain by saying "Only water in my embassy" started the natives again with "I won't wear knee pants" to court or anywhere else.

Our sturdy American by "pants" means breeches the kind that all ambassadors wear when they see the King.

Dawes says, "You will see me in my four pairs of pants all day."

That's true democracy and besides a comedy pipe and a "knee pants" with silk stockings don't go well together.

The American tobacco industry produced more than 11,000,000,000 cigarettes in May.

Some were toasted some had a dash in a cocktail, some "satisfied" but all as you and old one should remember can be overdone.

Ahmed Zogu who recently made himself king of Albania was proud of his ability to smoke 150 cigarettes a day. Now he isn't smoking. Throat trouble has made him dumb; he can't speak. Doctors tell him he probably has cancer from smoke irritation.

Mild smoking according to the medical profession does no harm.

But remember the warning above the Greek temple, Meden Agan, "shun excess."

If you have sound sleep don't envy any man his millions.

An American, very rich, knighted by King George because of the American money he spent in London was taken to a hospital suffering from insomnia.

In the morning he was found dead clutching a piece of paper on which he had written that as sleep was quite impossible he could endure life no longer. He had poisoned himself.

A majority of us go through life not appreciating our greatest blessings especially the

"Sleep that knits up the ravell'd sleeve of care. The death of each day's life, sore labour's bath, Balm of hurt minds, great nature's second course, Chief nourisher in life's feast."

Until sleep goes you do not know life's greatest physical misfortune.

Harold F. McCormick, rich Chicagoan welcomes his daughter returning from abroad with her Swiss husband and two fine children and welcomes warmly and wisely his Swiss son-in-law.

Those half Swiss children whose grandfather represents the harvester trust and whose great-grandfather John D. Rockefeller knows something about oil are to be congratulated on the acquisition of good Swiss blood.

It will mix well with their other inheritance and should be a considerable improvement on the blood of some native-born young gentlemen whose specialty is shaking up cocktails and smoking cigars.

Every year two thousand million American eggs are confined to hens and incubators. Every year 800,000,000 of them don't hatch.

Much lost possible wealth at $200,000,000 at 25 cents per chick.

The Department of Agriculture owns one hen laying eggs of which 90 per cent hatch and she transmits her qualities to daughters and granddaughters.

This interests millions of women in the United States.

The government has thrown open to settlement government lands formerly covered by the Mississippi river. Wonderful lands these are low, level deep heavy black loam.

As the "wind blown" where it hushes so the Mississippi flows where it hushes covering and uncounting millions of acres of fertile soil into the Gulf of Mexico.

When man's intelligence confronts "Old Man River" and make him an obedient part of the national machine?

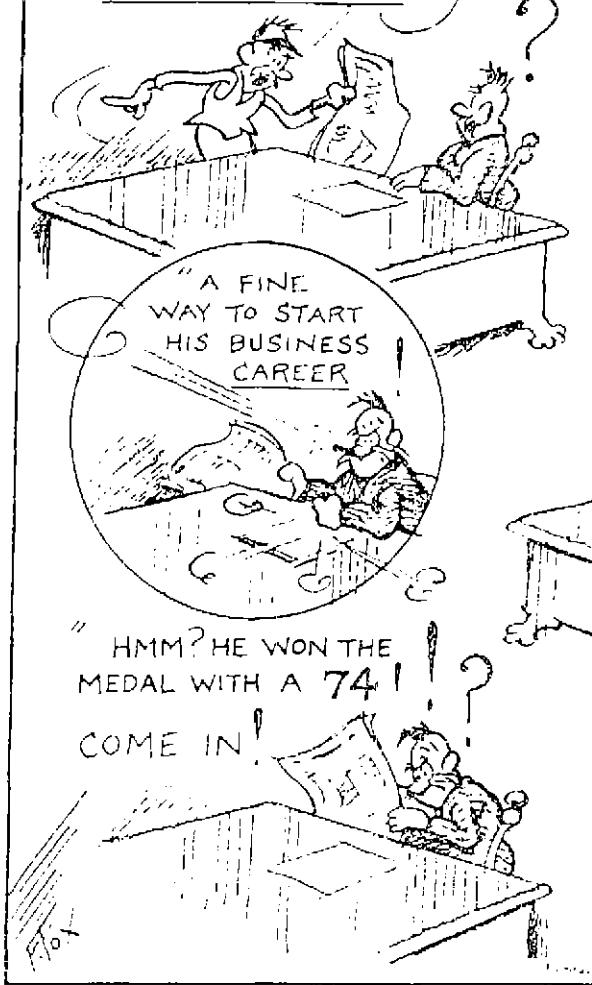

President Hoover whose business in engineering will attend to that, was "cut out" for that job.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 7:33. Sun rises tomorrow 4:33.

For a while it looked like a steam heated summer.

Here is my definition of a real newspaper: An independently owned medium, giving unbiased news to its readers, honest in its editorial opinions, supported by clean advertising, and doing its best to be fair to the public as a whole.

A preacher known as "the Marrying Parson" has been arrested for possessing, selling and transporting liquor. He was a trouble maker in more ways than one.

The way some fellows drive would think they were run runners with the Sheriff in pursuit.

TODAY'S STORYETTE

An elderly gentleman went into a photographic studio and asked to see the proofs of a picture recently taken of a young man whose name he gave. They were handed to him as a matter of course and he examined them critically. He seemed pleased and finally said:

"These are of my son. This one is a remarkably good photo of him. It is very like him, indeed. Has he paid for it yet?"

"No sir," said the photographer, "not yet."

"Ah," said the elderly gentleman, "very like him indeed."

Correspondence schools are now in existence that teach safe breaking in ten easy lessons. Of course the student's natural inclination may have something to do with his taking it up quickly.

Dishwashing in the home always comes when nobody feels like doing anything.

The new ambassador to Great Britain from America, Gen. Dawes, is on record as saying that no liquor will be served in the American embassy while he is in charge. From time to time Europe will get a good idea of what a great American gentleman is Mr. Dawes is some man!

HATEFUL COMMENT ON SWELL HEAD BY MY FRIEND

On a rainy day people tend to grow hateful, and those at my house were no exception. They gossiped.

A male gossip, having occasion to mention a certain matron, accused her of swell-head.

It is my custom to defend people who are criticized in my presence, and this I hastened to do.

"I think you are wrong," I said. "She is hateful by nature and a swell-head by practice. But I can't believe she has the swell-head. What on earth could she be swell-headed about?"

"Why," he explained, "her husband is important."

"In this town?" I asked.

"Well," said he, "everything is relative. It doesn't take much to swell some people. Where all are liked, a one-eyed man is king. In a community where most of the men swoon for a living, the wife of the horse-doctor feels superior to common people."

Children can fool the parents but the parents can't fool the children.

Men are always complaining that they don't understand women, but the women seem to have no trouble in understanding the men.

The man who never was a boy not only misses one of the greatest comforts of old age, but he makes a mighty poor dad.

A new sidewalk was being put in front of our house. It started to rain. The men had to quit. They covered the newly poured part with a tarpaulin to save it from the rain. While they were under shelter some one came along and walked over it covering it all and going over the barricade in order to get on the cement. During that same night some woman had to get on her hands and knees to get under the tarpaulin.

There is a great deal of complaint about the jury system in this country. A lot of people complain because they get on the jury and another lot complain because they don't get on the jury. Some of each are bound to get on most any jury in spite of all the care taken by both sides.

When an airplane goes down in the ocean it goes on going after it reaches the water. The engines in those things are so heavy they pull everything in or around an airplane right into the deep with 'em. And they evidently keep on going down or stay down as nothing is ever seen of one that goes down in the ocean. When an airplane is down it's down and there is no mistake about it.

Wonder what luck Joseph had with Mrs. when he told her the fish story?

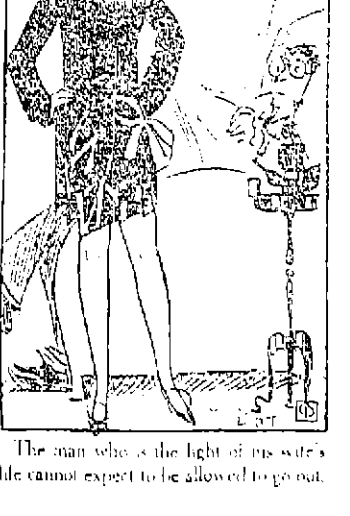

If all the fools were dead the city directory would have to be abolished.

A man representing himself as a workman can get into most any house on the pretense of being sent to do some work. People have confidence in the appearance and manners of a mechanic or workman. That is one of the reasons crooks get by, by representing themselves as workmen to get into a house through the roof. If they represented themselves as crooks you know what would happen.

Dawes And MacDonald Speeches Herald New Era Of Diplomacy

Prospect Of Sincere Effort By America And Britain To Lead In World Naval Limitation Applauded
By The Press

A new era in British-American relations, and in world diplomacy, is heralded by the speeches of Gen. Charles G. Dawes and Lord Bessborough, British Ambassador in Washington, made at the annual luncheon of the British Club in Washington, D. C., last night.

The speeches, which were broadcast by radio, were widely regarded as a landmark in the history of Anglo-American relations. They were seen as a clear indication of a new era of sincere effort by America and Britain to lead in world naval limitation.

Gen. Dawes, in his speech, declared that the United States was ready to enter into a new era of naval limitation. He said that the United States was ready to enter into a new era of naval limitation, and that the United States was ready to enter into a new era of naval limitation.

Lord Bessborough, in his speech, declared that Britain was ready to enter into a new era of naval limitation. He said that Britain was ready to enter into a new era of naval limitation, and that Britain was ready to enter into a new era of naval limitation.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

Editorial by Arthur A. Wilson, Jr., of the New York Times, published in the New York Times, June 28, 1929.

GREAT IS BORAH!

It is a curious thing, but I have found that the world is a very different place when you look at it from the point of view of a mud puddle.

When you look at the world from the point of view of a mud puddle, you see that the world is a very different place. You see that the world is a very different place, and that the world is a very different place.

The Broad Way Of Destruction

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

"I HAVE LOVED THEE WITH AN EVERLASTING LOVE: THEREFORE WITH LOVING-KINDNESS HAVE I DRAWN THEE" Jeremiah 31:3

By Dr. ALVIN E. BELL
Jesus concluded his Sermon on the Mount with the warning, "Enter ye in at the straight gate, for wide is the gate, and broad is the way that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereto." Our lessons for the past three months cover that sad period of 160 years during which both the northern and southern kingdoms of Israel and Judah were rushing down that broad road of sin which led to their destruction.

Two Prophets

The lessons of the quarter are concerned chiefly with two prophets, Isaiah and Jeremiah, who rank among Judah's greatest statesmenprophets, who exercised their ministry in Judah during the same period, viz., Micah, Nahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah and Obadiah, and in the land of the captivity Ezekiel and Daniel. For a half century Isaiah was the power behind the throne of four kings, Uzziah, Jotham,

Ahaz and Hezekiah. The first thirty-nine chapters of his prophecy, or as many as there are books in the Old Testament breathe the Old Testament spirit of judgment upon the nation's sin of idolatry; the last twenty-seven chapters, or as many as there are books in the New Testament breathe the New Testament spirit of peace, as they look beyond the captivity of Judah's return and even beyond this to Christ's suffering and death for our peace, and even still farther into the future to his second coming and the establishment of his messianic kingdom of peace in the earth.

Jeremiah's ministry of forty years in Jerusalem to the time of the city's destruction, and possibly ten years more in Egypt, followed that of Isaiah and differed from Isaiah's in that much of it was spent in prison with great persecution. Its keynote was pessimistic and offensive to rulers and people, for it dealt chiefly with the horrible details of the siege and destruction of Jerusalem and the temple and the captivity of the people into exil-ity. Isaiah, particularly in his 33rd chapter, gives us the clearest picture of Christ that we have in the Old Testament, but Jeremiah in his life and experience gives us the clearest likeness to Christ as the Man of Sorrows.

Two Reformers

The quarter's lessons recount the lives of two kings of Judah who were good kings and who wrought great reforms to lead the people back to God. These were Hezekiah and Josiah. Each of these restored the worship of Jehovah in the temple, purged the land of idolatry and led the people to a high appreciation of the sacred institutions of law and passover. Unfortunately their reforms were short-lived for their godly work was immediately undone by their ungodly sons who succeeded them.

Two Kingdoms Destroyed

This period is the saddest in Israel's history because it witnessed the destruction of both northern and southern kingdoms and their captivity by heathen powers. Israel with its capital at Samaria was destroyed by Assyria in 722 B. C. and Judah and its proud capital, Jerusalem, by Chaldeans under Nebuchadnezzar in 586 B. C.

The International Uniform Lesson for June 30th is the quarterly Review Lesson, the subject being "Prophecy and Kings of Judah's Decline," and the Golden Text, Jeremiah 31:3: "I have loved thee with an everlasting love; therefore with loving kindness have I drawn thee."

To Start Laying Surface Soon On Wilmington Road

Sharp Curves Are Eliminated As Work On Highway Progresses

WATER COMPANY IS RE-LAYING LINES

Work on relaying the New Wilmington road will be started shortly by the contractor in charge of the grading work and task of relaying the road from 30 to 50 feet from the present line has been completed.

Today a huge roller with an arm projecting in front with huge teeth on it began the task of tearing up the macadam roadway and spreading it out again where it is rolled down, and will form the base for the new road.

For approximately a half mile just leaving the city the macadam is to be entirely torn up and a new surface applied. For the remainder of the length of the road to be improved a ten foot strip of concrete will be applied at each side of the road. Later this will be filled in with concrete making a hard concrete road all the way to Wilmington.

The curves in the road are being eliminated as much as possible making the road much safer to travel on. The inside of the curve has been cut off and the road straightened as much as possible.

Employees of the New Castle Water Co. are at work now lowering one of the huge mains which supplies the city. This main which is near the surface of the highway is being lowered several feet.

The actual laying of concrete will be started within a short time now it is stated. In the meantime all traffic has been shut off.

Answer to Yesterday's Puzzle

PETER'S ADVENTURES IN ANIMAL LAND

SPIDER FEARS WHEN HE FINDS HE'S BEEN FOOLED

Peter hadn't been sitting very long on Mr. Spider's front porch when he began to feel just as Mr. Spider acted a little bit drowsy. The sun was so warm and the breeze so pleasant that it is more than likely he would soon have been nodding if Mr. Spider had not roused himself and stared at Peter with all of the eyes on the side of his head toward the boy. And the grin that sent the shivers running up and down the boy's spine was still on Spider's face.

"By the way, stranger, since you are visiting me it seems a high time you should tell me who you are. I seldom entertain a guest, unaware and never before one whose name I do not know. What sort of an insect are you, anyhow? You look strangely like some one I have seen upon a tree but who, I can't quite recall.

"Don't bite me, Spider. I beg you. I am a boy, but I am not cruel. I didn't try to pull off your legs nor destroy your web. Come now, didn't I watch my step so I shouldn't harm a thread of it?" Spider nodded.

"That you did," agreed the fellow. "But how can I be sure I can trust you? For all I know, maybe the reason why you didn't try to harm me is because you are so small. Come to think of it, it's your size that fooled me."

Next: "Spider Puts His Trust In Peter."

"WHAT KIND OF AN INSECT ARE YOU, ANYHOW?"

leer—drat my memory! I can't depend on it at all."

Peter giggled at the idea of being taken for an insect.

"I'm a boy," he laughed. "Of course you've met the likes of me before. And because I am who I am, is the reason I'm so proud of myself for working my way up here. I'll be the very first Two-Legs who ever climbed the lacy ladder to sit in a Spider web."

Spider's eyes seemed ready to pop out of his head. And the grin had changed to a frown that came near to making Peter laugh out of the other side of his mouth. Spider was angry, very angry. There wasn't any doubt about it.

"A boy?" blazed he. "Good gracious, and alive! The very idea of my being so stupid as to have been so far taken in by your pleasant manner as to allow you on my front porch. Boy, boy, I detect the very name. Hateful creatures, your sort are always pulling off Spider's legs or tearing down our houses or destroying our front porches! Cause up heaps of trouble, boys do! Why only last week a boy stepped on my poor sister when she was out for a peace since when she was out for a peace and squashed her. The very day Spider's back bristled.

"By the long legs of my grandfather, if I had guessed you were a boy I would have bitten you. I believe I will now!" Spider faced Peter and the boy could see the fangs in the front of Spider's head. Peter was a bit frightened.

Government Surplus Will Be Enormous

WASHINGTON, June 28—The government will have a surplus of from $160,000,000 to $175,000,000 June 30, according to figures prepared for Secretary of the Treasury Mellon Thursday.

This estimate was made comparing the $45,000,000 due the railroads for additional mail pay which would be liquidated by a June 30 income and corporation tax receipts.

New Castle Circle Delegates Tell Of Gathering At Niagara Falls

A busy session was that held by New Castle circle No. 5. Protected Home circle on Wednesday night, following the applications for membership and owing to the absence of several members of the degree staff, on vacation, the accepted candidates were duly obligated into the mystic of the order. Perhaps the most important item of business before the circle was the semi-annual election of officers for the ensuing term. The treasurer and secretary are annually elected and the accountant is appointed by the supreme body at Sharon. These present officers are Secretary, Lillian B. Jones; treasurer, George W. Mose; and accountant, Hon. George W. Mose. The election follows: President, Jack Langsdorfer; vice president, Mildred Rogers; guardian, Margaret Hammond; chaplain, David J. Tucker; guide, Mary Patterson; companion, Mable Tucker; sentinel, Amanda Dancy; watchman, Flora Cunningham; pianist, Harry Hammond.

A feature of the program for "the good of the order," was the reports from the supreme convention recently held at Niagara Falls. Supreme Auditor Dr. R. G. Baird referred not only to the greater advancement of the order since its increased rates but the wonderful increase in membership.

Richman's Clothes

Established 1879

Why Pay More than Richman's Price For Less than Richman Quality?

Consider, point by point, what you get in a Richman suit—the authentic styling of designers of international reputation—fitting qualities seldom matched by exclusive custom tailors—virgin wool fabrics identical in quality and pattern with those usually sold at $50—the precisely accurate and beautifully finished workmanship of needle craftsmen who share in the ownership of this business.

You can match this quality only at substantially higher prices—not at our price, or a price near it.

Added to the economies of volume production methods developed through fifty years' experience, you save the middleman's profit—Richman's Clothes are always sold direct from our factories to you.

Enjoy healthful fruits and vegetables...

Flavored with sugar they are delicious

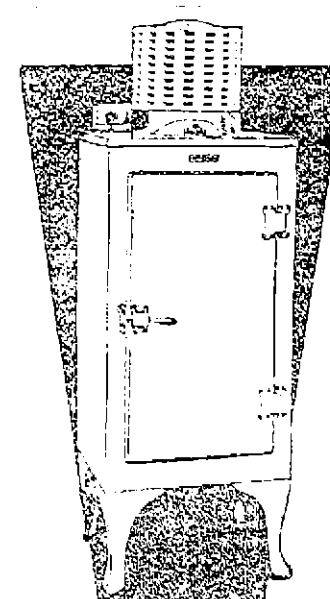

"MY FIRST RULE for healthful eating," said one of the foremost food scientists in this country, "would be to insist on at least one dish of raw vegetable salad and at least one raw fruit every day."

"My second rule would be very similar—to eat at least one cooked vegetable and one cooked fruit every day. You can vary the fruits and vegetables according to the season, their price, and your taste."

His next remark emphasized the value of sugar in making fruits and vegetables so palatable that people would eat them, not simply for their beneficial results, but for general enjoyment of their flavors. "Sugar," he explained, "is the greatest of all condimental foods. It brings out the natural flavor of fruits and vegetables."

It is important that people enjoy the food they eat. Otherwise they will not eat a varied enough diet. Sugar, nature's most perfect flavor, plays a part in making almost all the foods we eat more inviting.

A pinch of sugar improves the flavor of nearly every vegetable. Remember a dash of sugar in cereal, in tea or coffee, in all milk drinks. Most foods are more delicious and nourishing with sugar. The Sugar Institute.

STOREWISE AND OTHER-WISE

Today we adopt the slogan for our store. "Your Home Store" and it is the desire of our whole organization to make this store just that, in every sense of the word.

For 18 years we have been serving the people of our home town with dependable merchandise for cash prices which have been appreciated, and as a result we now have a larger and better store to present to you as "Your Home Store" and we will continue to make it worthy of your patronage from day to day.

Any suggestions you have to offer as a patron, to improve our service, will be gratefully received and considered.

We hope you can always call Offutt's "Your Home Store."

We quite agree with Pa Newe's comment about being careful to choose the proper time to display the flag upon our streets.

What did you do today toward making New Castle a better place in which to live? Think!

Find U. S. One Of Three Countries With No National Old-Age Pensions

By CHARLES T. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON, June 28.—China, India and the United States are the only countries that have no national old age pension laws, according to a presentation of Hamilton Fish, Jr., New York.

Several states have even laws, but quite recently the New York legislature has passed a bill to offer the best that America has to offer to its workers on the verge of old age. It is a bill for a national old age pension, as Representative Philip D. Swing of California has introduced with Congressman Fish, who represents it, and wait to die.

Representative Fish and Swing do not necessarily ask national old age pension. If not, however, they do want all the states to provide for them.

That old, full information is needed concerning the number of the country's aged poor," says Representative Swing, author of a bill for the passing of such statistics in connection with the 1930 census.

Representative Fish's alternative proposal is for an investigation by a congressional committee, not only to ascertain the number of the nation's former workers who are past their years of usefulness, but also to study all modern methods of caring for them.

The extra session of congress adopted neither plan, but both are sure to be pushed at the regular sessions, beginning in December.

Mass production has changed working conditions so fast in the last 20 years—to quote Representative Fish—that few of us yet realize how serious the worn out labor problem has become.

"The wage earner today," continues

HAMILTON FISH, JR.

PHILIP D. SWING

the congressman, "is thrown out on the industrial heap at middle age to the high pressure and super-efficiency of our industrial plants. The active age limit is being steadily lowered. The man or woman of 50 already is no longer equal to the pace set by younger workers.

Just as medical science has been lengthening man's term of years on earth," supplements Representative Swing, "industrial science has been curtailing the period of his productive capacity."

"To say," observes the New Yorker, "that the worker should save enough during his youth and prime to keep him through the latter half of his life is reckoning without the fact that millions of faithful toilers never are able to earn enough even to bring up their families in accordance with the standards of our time.

"Naturally they cannot save." And the man who has honestly done his bit," adds the Californian, "deserves better than to be treated like an object of charity when he is past his maximum of usefulness.

"As a strictly practical proposition," points out the Pacific coast representative, "experience with pensions has proven them actually cheaper than institutional care of the aged.

"The almshouse inmate immediately loses the last of his earning capacity.

"The pensioner very frequently is capable of a certain amount of work—not enough to support himself, and perhaps a wife also, but sufficient to reduce the amount of help he requires."

The old age pensions already paid in America for the most part are on a 50-50 basis, as between state and county.

"Administrative details," suggests Representative Swing, "probably are best left in the hands of county authorities, as most familiar with the needs and residential qualifications of applicants.

"Federal contributions to pension funds, it seems to me, hardly ever are likely to be necessary, except possibly in behalf of certain classes of itinerant workers—mainly farm labor—who otherwise never would be able to prove residence anywhere."

What pensions would the Californian recommend?

"About $1 a day as a maximum," replied the representative, "shading downward as the pensioner's property approached a value of $5,000 or his income a total of $300 yearly.

Cures On Credit Is New German Idea

German Health Resorts Adopt
American Method Of Doing Business

(International News Service)
BERLIN, June 28.—Cures on credit is the latest device of a group of German financiers and hotel owners to encourage people to spend their vacation at a German spa, even if they do not have the ready cash.

About 150 owners of hotels or boarding houses all over Germany cooperate with a group of money lenders with a view to extend credits to government employees or other employees in the maximum amount of a month's salary. They formed a corporation named "Via," which has commenced business in these days at Berlin.

It is planned to allow the debtors to refund the credit in six monthly installments with an additional one per cent interest per month but a credit is granted only in cases where the debtor can prove that he owes half the amount of the desired credit in cash.

Crime Affected By Climate Says Judge

(International News Service)
PARIS, June 28.—That crime is a matter of climate is the novel theory advanced by a criminal court judge of this city.

That Paris must have very similar climatic conditions to those of Chicago is the suggestion made by those who criticize this judge for the recent so-called wave of indulgence in his court.

Judge Mangin-Boquet pardoned a young Corsican who had slain a rival in love, in this city.

"Return to Corsica immediately," the judge told the youth. "Paris is bad for you. In the climate of your native village you will be better off."

Being human is a hard life, but suppose we were microbes. Takes a billion microbes to be a crowd.

It is better to do your best and expect the worst than do your worst and expect the best.

Big Gold Rush On Near Bulong Reef

(International News Service)
SYDNEY, June 28.—A great gold rush has taken place in virgin country near the famous old Bulong Reef.
The country has been pegged for miles. Although the prospectors have so far sunk only 3 foot shafts they have found hornblende quartz and ironstone showing free gold.

Gold was first discovered at Kilgoolie in this district in 1893. The fame of the find spread throughout the world and gold hunters flocked to the district. The early settlers had to endure great privations through want of provisions and water but from the "Golden Mile" they reaped a rich harvest. The old fields still support about 15,000 miners.

Over 1000 Ask For Credit Each Month

"Charge it!"

This is the customer in a casual tone of voice and in a few seconds Miss Ruth Harmon and Katherine Zuck at the credit exchange are peering through the files to see whether Mr. Jones or Mrs. Smith or Miss Whosis is on the level.

The report goes back to the merchant and the wheels of commerce go on smoothly once again.

Just how many persons want credit is not known. Many of course ask for it who are known and no calls are sent. Some merchants are not inters of the exchange and thus they do not call.

It is safe to say however that at least 1333 people ask for credit each month for in the past six months, the local exchange has taken care of some 2000 calls.

Now some of these calls include as many as four or five different parties. You couldn't figure out the exact total you see, but this is an estimate anyhow.

The local exchange's new collection department too has made collections from 750 since its organization just a few weeks ago and the amount is well into the thousands of dollars.

ANNIVERSARY OF PEACE PACT FINDS SENATORS AT ODDS

decade, more money has been wrong from the taxpayers of the world to pay for the building of weapons of human destruction than was spent in any one hundred years of peace before.

While every fireside in civilization has vacant chairs, made so by the World War, the widows, the orphans, and the crippled survivors have been taxed to the limit to get ready to engulf the world again in a baptism of human blood which must inevitably follow, unless this crazy, intolerable, unreasoning cry of militarism be suppressed.

If we could take the profit out of war, if we could eliminate human greed for the almighty dollar, we could put the world upon a basis of universal peace. These ten years of peace have been under the rule and domination of criminal wealth. The great common people of the civilized world are peace-loving and have a hatred for war. If they would escape the next world conflict, which would blot out civilization from the face of the earth, they must take possession of the governments of the world.

The must suppress the unnatural appetite for financial profits and set up the standard of universal justice and the logic of reason. To steer our civilization from the catastrophe of another World War, monopoly and greed must be driven from power and those who love humanity more than money must be put in control.

By SENATOR WM. E. BORAH (Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee)

The Versailles treaty has been modified in practice, through construction, and the only thing to be regretted is that it has not been modified a great deal more. In the great debates in the Senate, when the Versailles treaty was under consideration, we took the position that the treaty was an impossible document, that to execute it would bring turmoil and misery to the people of Europe for fifty years. We contended it would have to be modified before it would give any assurance of world peace. The last ten years have proven that contention to be true. Only by modifying it further, can we get real world peace.

By SENATOR CLAUDE A. SWANSON (Former Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee)

The world should rejoice that on the tenth anniversary of the signing of the treaty of Versailles, through the young reparations commission, the financial differences existing at this time between the allies and Germany have been liquidated and settled satisfactorily to all the nations concerned. It was a difficult task to accomplish and I hope the world will accept it.

If on this tenth anniversary of peace, the new pact is accepted throughout the world, as it has been by nations most deeply interested, the hatreds and passions engendered by the World War will disappear.

The Versailles treaty, when it was signed, was denounced by some as too harsh to Germany and by others as too lenient. The young reparations agreement seems to settle with fairness and justice the financial problem that arose through the treaty of peace. If the United States had appointed a member of the reparations commission as provided by the treaty of Versailles, this amicable settlement would have been made years ago and the world saved years of financial loss and international disagreements.

Day Takes Heavy Job

Sinclair's Aide, Going To Jail, Decides To Handle Boxes And Crates Rather Than Be Warden's Secretary

By CHARLES P. STEWART, Central Press Writer.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—Henry Mason Day's job in the District of Columbia jail involves considerable physical work. The Sinclair aide must serve four months for his part in jury shadowing in federal oil cases.

As assistant to Storekeeper J. W. Pratt, his duties are clerical to some extent but they also include the "hauling" of many a weighty box, barrel, crate and gunnysackful of commissariat supplies.

As Boss Pratt remarked in greeting his new aide, "You won't miss your gym."

As that it was Henry's own choice. He could have been Superintendent W. L. Penk's private secretary for the next four months had he but said the word, a softer snap by far.

Henry, however, preferred the harder stunts exercise.

Seven-Hour Day.

Theoretically it classes as an office job. That is the hours are 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. like Harry P. Sinclair's.

There is the further advantage that the office help are not shoo'd to bed at any particular time. They have the run of the administrative part of the jail which really is as comfortable a place as any other to loaf in from 4 o'clock until supper time and after that up to as late as 10:30 or 11—swapping yarns and listening to the radio.

Harry Sinclair has kept pretty much to himself in the pharmacy. Not, they say at the jail that he is stand-offish but the pharmacy affords an opportunity for plenty of privacy and he makes the most of it.

Day Mixes With Folk.

Day is reported to be more of a mixer—inclined to make friends with the "gang" and have a pretty good time. The fact that Day has "roughed" it a good deal.

It evidently comes as no particular hardship to him to burk in

Some July Fourth Accidents To Avoid

CHICAGO, June 28.—What kind of accidents should be avoided on the Fourth of July? The National Safety Council has attempted to answer this question by tabulating the leading causes of accidents for last Fourth of July, as follows:

1. Fireworks. While only 11 of the 255 deaths of last Fourth of July were caused directly by fireworks, the fireworks were the indirect cause of many more fatalities. Also, there were an estimated 25 deaths from fireworks previous to the Fourth, mostly from explosions, and there were an estimated 20 deaths from fireworks immediately following the Fourth, mostly from deaths of looks, jaw and from burns. Also a number of children were poisoned through eating fireworks and bonfires.
2. Drownings. Of the 229 deaths on the Fourth of July day, 116 were from drownings.
3. Automobiles. Seventy-six Fourth of July fatalities were from automobiles. A good many of these were indirectly caused by fireworks. For example, when children, excited by fireworks, would dart in front of an automobile.
4. Fires. The accidents of this group were related mostly to fireworks, bonfire celebrations, and playing with matches.
5. Fire Arms. There were a number of deaths from stray bullets and through target practice. Also, this group is closely related to blank cartridges, which caused many serious deaths.
6. Miscellaneous. This group includes 12 deaths from heat, and from airplane accidents.

Testing New Soil Builder

Swedish Peas Smuggled Into Akron Man Fights Barbed Wire Country Accidentally, Prove Bonanza

Risks Life To Save Boy From Electrocutation

To Reach Child With Clothes Affire

GREENVILLE, Mich., June 28.—From three peas "smuggled" into the United States quite accidentally six years ago, an industry which seems destined to contribute millions of dollars in value to American farmers, has been developed by Dr. William Hansen, local veterinarian.

The peas were found in two quarts of Swedish vetch seed which Dr. Hansen purchased for use on his farm in Kent county. He was attracted by their appearance and planted them by themselves to observe their growth characteristics.

Hansen's Swedish peas, as they have become known, promise to be one of the nation's leading soil builders. They make a larger foliage growth than any other variety of field peas. A vigorous root system, knotted with nitrogen-bearing nodules, extends deep into the soil. Vines extend six to 12 feet in length often, with a prolific growth.

The original three peas have been increased to nine bushels. Indications are that they will yield about 30 bushels of seed to the acre, according to W. C. Cribbs, Michigan State college regional extension worker. The college has been given a quantity of the peas for test season.

Dr. Hansen has observed a marked improvement in productivity of soil in each field where the peas have been grown during the last six years.

Many Activities Engage Scouts At Camp Phillips

Camp Phillips, Thursday, June 27, was the scene of a busy day for the scouts. The camp program today was filled with activity from the first boom of the summer to the final soft notes of taps at the close of day. The inmates of Kwanan Hut 11 kept up the good work, started on Tuesday by capturing the Honor banner awarded for inspection the third successive time. Special recognition was given these boys and they were given a special treat of ice cream by the camp manager.

Large group only 9 boys failed to swim placed second with 120 points. The required distance of 25 feet or Boy Scout to place first was Ralph more. This is a remarkable record. Boyd, New Bedford Troop No. 1, with taking into consideration the fact that these boys are between the ages of 7 and 12 years.

Southwestern Run McCoy is in camp and is assisting with the swimming program. Scout Boy Alen, senior, is also assisting with the swimming program. Today he replaced the old rope which broke yesterday. Bob was the last to take it. He succeeded in the attempt after others had given up as a bad job. Maybe Bob would like to sit on top of the flag pole at The News Office the next time a Zeppelin flies over the city.

Volant Cattle Show Underway

Clear Weather At Noon Indicates Successful Field Day At Volant

At noon today, the cattle show and community field day at Volant were well underway.

Nearly a hundred cattle were being exhibited and judged by E. A. Pitts, state cattle specialist, and a large number of people from the community and visitors from other parts of the county were present.

Reports from Volant stated that the weather had an optimistic outlook for the day and hopes were entertained that several hundred visitors would be present.

Lunch was served at noon to a large number by the ladies of the Presbyterian church.

This afternoon, Dr. C. G. Jordan, state secretary of agriculture, will speak at the E. B. Pitts, cattle judge.

City To Pay E. L. Austendorf's Attorney For Avenue Opening

Council today on recommendation Solicitor White agreed to pay $500 damages to E. L. Austendorf, Leisure avenue and North Mercer Street. Owing to the opening of Leisure avenue at Mercer street, the city had several damage claims to pay. The city took up the case but not in the case of Austendorf and today Judge William E. Porter appeared and asked council for a payment. Solicitor White recommended it be made immediately.

City Councilmen To View Poplar Street

Attorney Huggins today appeared when council met at the city building. He represented a Poplar Street resident.

Huggins said his client's property was valuable and that the street is not in good condition.

Council said that the street should be paved but that the property owners themselves could not agree on what they desired.

Sabons promised to view the thoroughfare.

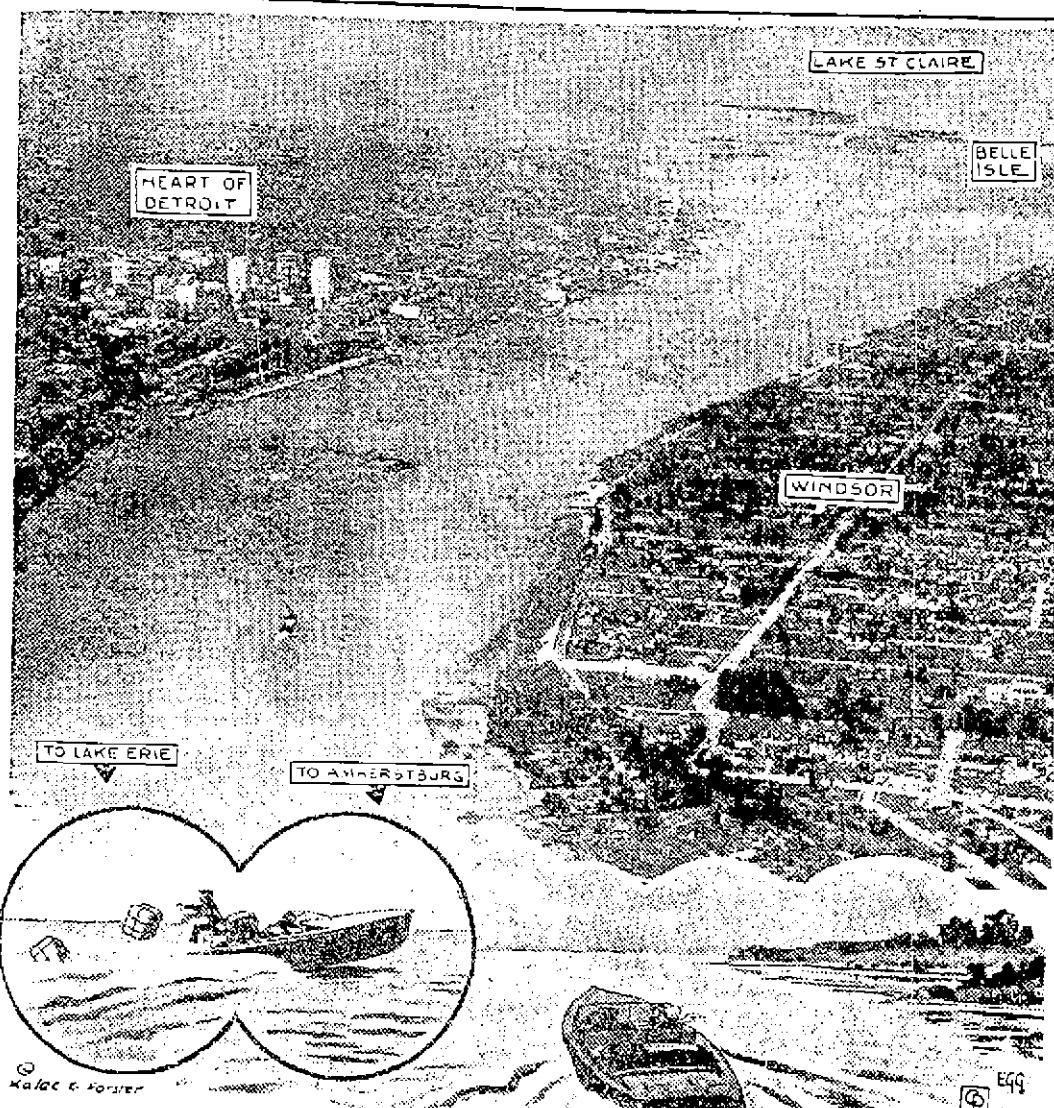

The street is high on one side, low on the other and has never been graded, it was stated during the meeting.

Councilmen Differ Over Removal Project

Councilman Reeves Wants To By-pass Water Around Rosena Dam

Councilman Clayton H. Reeves opposes the removal of the Rosena dam. He stated in council meeting held at the city hall today. Reeves expressed the belief that should the dam be removed it will become a place for discarded rubbish, garbage and he believes the city could construct an 84 inch pipe to by-pass water around the western end of the dam to carry off the high water.

Other councilmen indicated they did not agree with him.

Councilman Tyler said he hated to believe that the city police and sanitary department could not prevent the littering of the stream with garbage.

Engineer Miller reported it would cost about $1,000 to remove the tim-

Jaworski Gang Member Being Returned Today

"Polish John" Lucian, Jaworski Gang Member Being Taken From Michigan To Somerset

(International News Service) SOMERSET, Pa., June 28.—"Polish John" Lucian, last of the Flathead Gang of payroll robbers to face the law, was due here today from Detroit, in company with Somerset county authorities.

The alleged chauffeur for Felix Fortak, "brains" of the gang led by Paul Jaworski, who was recently executed, was arrested by Michigan authorities in connection with holdup here of the Central City Bank June 6, and the earlier killing at Bolivar of a payroll guard.

Fortak, included Lucian in a confession he made of the gang's activities, after his recent capture in connection with the Central City holdup.

Trustees Renamed For State Schools

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Pa., June 28.—Governor John S. Fisher today reappointed all the members of board of trustees at eight state teacher colleges and two other institutions.

The reappointments were made at the teacher colleges in Kutztown, East Stroudsburg, Bloomsburg, Shippensburg, Lock Haven, Indiana, Shippensburg and Edinboro. The trustees at the Cheyney training school for teachers and the home for training in speech of deaf children at Mt. Airy also were reappointed.

Charges Bank Gave Him Counterfeit Money For Check

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, June 29.—A bank gave him a counterfeit $20, when he cashed a check given him for a horse, he said, Michael Yonish, Hooverville farmer, testified before the United States Commissioner here when arraigned on charges of raising a $5 bill to $20.

Government witnesses had related Yonish gave them the bill, for purchase of a quart of moonshine liquor. Yonish retaliated with the story of receiving the money from the bank.

The commissioner today had continued the case for further evidence.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—Foreign diplomats, from an ambassador and ministers plenipotentiary down to ordinary attaches, were halted by police on the streets of the Nation's capital 37 times within recent years for driving automobiles while drunk and for other traffic violations, Maj-

dent, reported to the senate today in response to a resolution of inquiry.

It was reported to the police Tuesday night that there were boys at the Ben Franklin Junior High school playgrounds, who were destroying the equipment, etc. at that place.
Officer Lockard, Hamill, Llewellyn answered the call and rounded up two boys who were found responsible for most of the damage. These boys were ordered in before the mayor this morning. Disposition of the case is being withheld, pending the effort of the boys to make restitution for the damage done.

If they fail to make good the damage done, they will suffer some severe penalty, the authorities state.

GERMANY BITTER OVER DEBT PACT

These four men are among the most powerful in German affairs today as sentiment grows against the Young reparations plan which the Nationalists declare makes Germany a colony of England and France. Upper left, President Hindenburg, of Germany; upper right, Gustav Stresemann, German foreign minister; below, Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, left, who represented Germany at the Paris conference, and Owen D. Young, agent general for reparations payments, who recently returned to the United States. Hindenburg is quoted as expressing his dissatisfaction with the Treaty of Versailles in which Germany acknowledges sole guilt for the war, and Stresemann has started the world with bitter references to the United States in the reichstag.

in the American legations in Bern, Switzerland, and Panama. In 1927 she resigned to become Mrs. George M. Curtis, of Chicago.
Miss Pattie H. Field, of Denver, was appointed vice counsel at Amsterdam, Holland, in 1925, and still holds the post. In 1927 Miss Frances E. Willis, of Redlands, Cal., passed her diplomatic examinations, and early the next year was appointed vice counsel at Valparaiso, Chile. Miss Nellie B. Stogsdahl, of South Bend, Ind., and Miss Margaret Warner, Lincoln, Mass., passed the examinations in 1929 and are awaiting foreign assignment.

Valuable Wire Cargo Being Raised From Wrecked Ship In L. I. Sound

By R. T. BULKELEY
International News Service Staff
Correspondent
OLD LYME, Conn., June 28.—"The breaking waves dashed high" against Hatchett reef last winter when the freighter Wincoo came along and a gate was blowing that sent the Win-coo onto the reef and sent her crew into their boats to make a safety on the shores as best they could.

Old Long Island Sound was at one of her worst moods when the Win-coo crashed out. The crew escaped.
Presently the Wincoo slid off the reef into 133 feet of water and was lost.
The Wincoo had 1,367 coils of copper wire and 1,445 coils of steel wire, all of great commercial value, the wire cargo went along with the boat.

Merritt, Chapman and Scott Corp., a concern that makes a specialty of building, sinking vessels, sent a small fleet out here in May and divers went down to examine the lost Wincoo.
They passed hawsers about her hull and a great crane on a boat called "Admiral" started to hoist.

The Wincoo promptly gave way. California and was a shattered wreck. Next the divers cleared away the deck so that there was easy access to the cargo and started getting the copper coils out one by one.

Until well into July it is expected the fleet of wrecking vessels will bob on the swells at Hatchett reef, and when they pull away the last coil will have been salvaged. Daily a tug puts away to New London with each day's catch of wire and the job is going well.

PERCY MACNAB WILL VISIT THIS CITY

Percy MacNab of Los Angeles, California, is planning to arrive in this city on July 3 for a visit with friends and relatives, among them with whom he will visit being his sister, Mrs. J.
B. Wadlington. In addition to the visit here being one of pleasure, he is also coming here for the purpose of looking after some business matters.
It is four years since Mr. MacNab left this city to take up his residence in

It Ain't A Cod Fishermen Yell At Boston Medal

Battle Rages Over Likeness Of Boston's Famed Product On Tercentenary Medal

SECRETARY QUOTES AUTHORITY FOR IMAGE

(International News Service)
BOSTON, June 28.—The tercentenary medal being struck for the centennial of the city's founding was not the work of an expert artist, but was the work of a fisherman, who had just been informed that they didn't know a codfish when they saw one.

The medal, which was the first of a series, was the work of a fisherman, who had just been informed that they didn't know a codfish when they saw one.

It all began when Newcomb issued the Tercentenary medals bearing the impression of the sacred cod. Since in its general contours it resembled a fish, it passed muster with the layman, but was greeted with a hoist of derision down on the waterfront. If they declared the medal on the medal was a cod, then they had been catching hammer head sharks in their expeditions for brainfood. They had netted thousands of cod, they argued, and should recognize one when it crossed their line of vision.

Whereupon Mr. Newcomb produced authorities. He disclosed the fact that he had secured the model for the fish on the medal from a plate in the fish book written by Barton Everman, ichthyologist for the U. S. Fisheries.

Newcomb insists "That," said Mr. Newcomb, "is a codfish. The fish that arrive in Boston and are seen in the windows of the fish stores are all dried out and warped out of shape. The codfish represented on the medal is the real cod."

This apparently overwhelming evidence, however, glanced off the armor of contempt with which the fishermen have surrounded themselves. Their basic argument is unchanged. "We know a cod when we see one; and that may be a fish on that there medal, but it ain't a cod."

And there the battle rests.

Lawyer's Telegram Starts Family Row

(International News Service)
KANSAS CITY, June 28.—A telegram which Arthur Mag of Kansas City, sent to his attorney who lives in a Kansas town resulted in him making a long trip to prove to the wife of his attorney that he was not a chorus girl.

So the story goes, Mag had to make a business trip to Denver, Colo., and if he needed his attorney's help in the matter he was to send for him. When Mag arrived in Denver, he found that he would need the counsel of his attorney to settle the business, so he sent him the following telegram:

"Meet me in Room 600 Palace Hotel, Denver, Colo., as soon as possible. Mag."

The wife of the attorney opened the wire and would not let her husband make the trip to Denver to meet, who she thought was a blond haired chorus girl. In spite of every protest her husband made she held fast and demanded he stay at home. The attorney, however, sent a message to Mag telling him to come to the hotel and asking his help.

Kansas Citizens Lose Cash At Jinx Corner

(International News Service)
KANSAS CITY, June 28.—Kansas City jinx corner—where of late Kansas City citizens have been donating "cold cash" to representatives of that great underworld organization, was the scene here of a third holdup within a week.

Bandits seem to have a liking for this corner and they are conducting their "business" in grand fashion—pulling off one "job" after another. The scene of the robberies is near the downtown district.

New Kensington Man Detained In Girl's Death Probe

Police Hold New Kensington Man As Girl Companion Is Found Dead In Wrecked Automobile

(International News Service)
NEW KENSINGTON, Pa., June 28.—Despite his story that he was "walking back" from an automobile ride and found his car overturned beside the road with Margaret Gray, 22, of New Kensington fatally injured, Harry C. Yingling, 22, of New Kensington was being held today for grand jury investigation.

The story of the youth was partially corroborated by James Smith, negro, of Ford City, who said he picked up Yingling and they later saw the damaged car beside the road.

Miss Gray was killed on the Leechburg and New Kensington road. She was the sole support of her mother and three younger children.

FOUR FOOT SEA BEAN IN CHICAGO MUSEUM

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, June 28.—One of the largest beans in the world, the huge sea bean has been obtained by representatives of the Field museum here. This type of bean, which grows to a length of more than four feet is the fruit of a large woody climber of the acacia family and is a native of tropical regions.

GEORGIA TECH HEAD IN POSITION FOR 44 YEARS

(International News Service)
ATLANTA, Ga., June 28.—When members of the 1929 graduating class of Georgia Tech received their diplomas it marked the 44th year that Dr. E. Harris, 83, chairman of the board of trustees of the school, has seen his name penned on sheepskins. The aged educator, a former governor of Georgia, has been giving diplomas at Tech ever since the school was founded in 1885.

Modern Terminal For K. C. Airport

(International News Service)
KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 28.—A proposed modern air terminal to be built at Richards airport here will be used to house future national aircraft shows and expositions as well as a terminal for air-rail passengers, under present plans.

The building, to be erected by the Air Terminal corporation, will be built at a cost of $500,000. It will include every modern development for the handling of planes and passengers.

The terminal will be constructed so that planes may enter or leave from all points of the compass.

HUSBAND STILL BEST DESPITE BOXING LESSONS

CHICAGO, June 28.—Despite professional boxing lessons she took so that she would be able to fight back when her husband punched her, Mrs. Amelia Ducharme declares he has better reach and more weight, so he still ticks her. The Ducharme private fights came to light when she filed a bill for divorce charging cruelty.

CHICAGO WOMEN JAILED FOR RADIO

CHICAGO, June 28.—Three women in keeping their radio on, and one in going full blast, despite the warnings of their neighbors in their North Side apartment, had resulted in Mrs. Ella Liber and Mrs. Gertrude Ashworth being sent to jail for ten years.

American Musicians Facing Paris Fight

General Strike Threatened If Americans Don't Leave City

(International News Service)
PARIS, June 28.—American musicians and artists must play their tunes elsewhere, following a serious threat made by the French Syndicate des Musiciens to blacklist music-hall and theatres which employ them. They even declare they will call a general strike if the evil is not remedied.

can theatrical stars and orchestra directors. But they are worried over the popularity of jazz leaders and players from across the water. The Frenchmen are only imitating their English cousins who have banned American artists in London until the ban on English musicians is lifted in the United States. They are also determined to fight the growing number of French snobs who think that everything in America is wonderful and can see nothing good in his own sunny France.

Ice Cream Secret
3,000 Years Old

(International News Service)
DENVER, June 28.—The ball of fate was started rolling by a single blow, a habitual criminal, when the trigger of a deadly weapon that spun death lead through the black of midnight into the bodies of two men, Harry Oble and Louisa (Lena) Hostess, in a negro rooming house which was raided for liquor by Oble and his companion, Patrolman Robert K. Evans, also known as Bobbie, last November 22.

The force of the ball of fate sent Evans to a hospital, wounded by two bullets, and Harry Oble (one face to face with the disarmed sword, heart, Harry Oble, an attending nurse.

He was taken to a blue beat, Miss King, and killed Evans one morning as the sun rose "because he is mine and I can't have him." She hovered near death for weeks herself as a result of a suicide attempt with the same gun with which she killed Evans.

Two men hang by the neck until dead during the week of August 19, for the crime he committed while hidden under a bed in a darkened room. Lives will leave an aged mother without means of support.

Miss King stood trial for murder, and was sent to the State Penitentiary for life. Her mother, her small daughter by a former marriage, and J. H. Daniels of Dallas, Tex., to whom she was betrothed, all mourn her absence from the heartside.

Evans' divorced wife, Mrs. Bobbie, and two sons live in Gilman, Iowa, and the widow, to whom he was married in Denver after his affair with Harry Oble was apparently ended, begged him to read newspaper accounts of the actors in the tragedy of errors that would uphold the level of a Shakespearean page.

SIAMESE TWIN BABIES EXHIBITED

Wanda Mae and Juanita Fae Lenz, nine-week-old Siamese twins, joined together differently than any hitherto known, are shown on arrival in New York from Mattoon, Ill., in company of Nurses Gertrude Young, left, and Idella Greviston, on their way to Irvington, N. J., to be exhibited. The mother of Mattoon has six other children, perfectly normal, the eldest being 16 and the youngest 12 months. The twins weighed eight pounds at birth, and at present weigh slightly under.

Last place in the previous book was held by Lewis Brown Zayz, rabbi and author.

Crowd Of Four Hundred At Methodist Picnic

With weather that seemed made to order and a crowd of 400 present, the picnic of the Epworth M. E. Lewis. Short addresses were made by Senator Weingartner, H. J. Kelly, Rev. S. L. Maxwell, Rev. J. L. Pettie and the grounds of Senator and Mrs. Norman Clark, Miss Florence Thompson sang, accompanied by Miss Edna Weide. The program closed with a held since the merger of the two churches and exceeded the hopes of those in charge of it.

The crowd began to gather early in the afternoon and at 3 o'clock a program of sports for the youngsters was run off by Rev. S. L. Maxwell. At 4:30 the picnic dinner was served, the long tables being set up on the lawn. Following the dinner a short program of entertainment was presented in the charge of J. P. Rantz and William joint picnic of the Epworth M. E. Lewis. Short addresses were made by Senator Weingartner, H. J. Kelly, Rev. S. L. Maxwell, Rev. J. L. Pettie and the grounds of Senator and Mrs. Norman Clark, Miss Florence Thompson sang, accompanied by Miss Edna Weide. The program closed with a held since the merger of the two churches and exceeded the hopes of those in charge of it.

Man With Dynamite Is Found Loitering Near Park Old Mill

Gives Name Of George H. Hayes
When Sheriff Reynolds Places Him Under Arrest

George H. Hayes, who says that he lives at 1205 Moravia street, is being held in the county jail, while Sheriff H. M. Reynolds is conducting an investigation of his suspicious actions at Cascade Park, where he was found loitering in the vicinity of the old mill with half stick of dynamite, a piece of fuse and a dynamite cap in his possession.

Sheriff Reynolds and Deputy Kenneth Musser responded to a call from Park manager, Shaver, last night in which it was reported that a man was acting suspiciously. When the sheriff arrived and searched the man, who gave his name as Hayes, the dynamite, cap and fuse were found. He also had in his pockets a special policeman's badge, and some other articles.

Park officials said that Hayes had been seen loitering about the old mill on several occasions lately. His actions were such that they took him to task and when he could not offer a good explanation the sheriff was called. Hayes told the sheriff that he had the dynamite in his possession for the purpose of blowing up stumps. He said that he was figuring on blowing the stumps about the 4th of July. He did not give a very satisfactory explanation, as to where he had secured the dynamite and fuse.

Hayes says that he is 23 years of age and has been employed by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. Sheriff Reynolds is checking up on his statements today.

Snyders Depart For Trip Tonight

Dr. Snyder Will Attend Medical Convention At Portland
July 8-11

Their departure from New Castle at nine o'clock tonight will mark the beginning of an extensive trip through the Northwest for Dr. and Mrs. E. U. Snyder, their daughter, Miss Marjorie, and son, Ernest, of 301 Winter avenue.

Enroute they plan to make stops at Chicago, Yellowstone Park, Salt Lake City and then on to Portland, where Dr. Snyder will attend the sessions of a national medical convention which will be held from July 8 to 11. Following the meeting they will go to Seattle and on north to points in Alaska. They intend to take the Canadian route home, returning through the Great Lakes district.

The trip will require almost a month and a half, for the present schedule mapped out does not call for the sojourn to end here until Sunday, August 11.

Ensign Parkins Leaving Today

Salvation Army Head Is Going To New Post At Kane, Pa.

Ensign and Mrs. E. J. Parkins and Mrs. Betty Larsen who for three years have been in charge of the local division of the Salvation Army, have been transferred and leave today for Kane, Pa.

Ensign Parkins during his three years stay in New Castle has managed the affairs of the Salvation Army very successfully. He is widely known throughout the city and his many friends will regret his departure.

Captain V. Thompson and Claude Smith of Kane will continue the work of the local division. The headquarters at 510 Young street will remain unchanged.

Dr. Green Goes To Convention

Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of New Castle schools, left Thursday evening for Atlanta, Ga., where he will attend the National Educational Association convention as a delegate from Pennsylvania.

Dr. Green was recently selected as one of Pennsylvania's 41 delegates to the session.

Cantor Will Sing In South America

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, June 28.—Singing what is said to be the first concert tour of his kind, Cantor Joseph Rosenblatt is enroute to South America to appear in operatic arias, and song in French, Spanish, Italian, German, English and Hebrew.

The Cantor will arrive in Buenos Aires on July 9, and will also appear in concert in Rosario and other Argentine cities: Montevideo, Santo, Sao Paulo and Rio de Janeiro. He will tour for eight weeks.

Cantor Rosenblatt was once offered $1,000 a performance by the Chicago Opera company in the role of Eliazar, La Juive with Rosa Raisa.

The South American concert tour was arranged by Mrs. Belle Lyman of New York.

NEW QUOTAS IN EFFECT MONDAY

European Immigration Cut Down Materially By National Origins Plan

WASHINGTON, June 28.—A new system of determining permissible immigration into the United States, particularly European immigration, will go into operation around the borders of the United States next Monday.

That is the date for the national origins amendments to the old law, successfully maintained by its supporters in the senate over the objection of President Hoover, to become effective. The scheme devised in an attempt to proportion European immigration in accordance with the present racial character of the American population, will cut down the total of European immigration materially, and bring about sharp changes in the quotas of various nations.

Under the new system, about 150,000 immigrants will be admitted annually, as compared with approximately 164,000 under the old quota basis. England and northern Ireland, which this year were allowed 34,007 immigrants to the United States, will be permitted a total of 65,721 annually after July 1, or something like 44 per cent of the year's immigration from Europe.

Germany will be allowed 35,907 immigrants instead of 31,237; Irish Free State 17,352 instead of 28,567; Sweden

3,214 against 9,561; Norway 2,377 against 6,453; Denmark 1,181 against 2,789; Poland 6,524 against 9,982; Belgium 1,904 against 5,125; and Italy 5,802 against 2,843. Most of the other nations will be held to the arbitrary minimum allowance of 100 a year.

The Geographic says nonacid tribes of Asia use fermented mare's milk as an intoxicant, so our white wine isn't unique.

Don't rest, experience, you'll get the Y. W. C. A. camp at East Brook has gradually increased until now some 60 girls will be in camp here next week. The first week of camp is set aside for underprivileged girls. Sixty is the number of girls the Y. W. association wanted in camp for this special week.

These girls are being trained by various church organizations, clubs, and persons in the city. A complete list of the names of the organizations and persons sending girls to camp will be announced later. These girls will go on to camp Monday morning.

There are just two explanations of this. First, some desperation, and the reason, at least sixty girls will be in camp here next week.

Good Positions Await Teachers

Supt. John C. Syling Is Having Hard Work Filling Fourteen Vacancies

SEVERAL POSITIONS IN BORO SCHOOLS

Despite the fact that there is a big surplus of applicants for positions in teaching in the city schools, County Superintendent of Schools, John C. Syling, stated this morning that difficulty is being encountered in getting teachers for some of the rural districts.

At present there are three vacancies in Wilmington township, two in Supt. Hoke township, one in Perry township, one in Wayne, one in Lincoln, one in Madison, one in the upper grade at Volant, one at Princeton and one at Hillsville, and one in Scott.

The Princeton board is understood to have applications for the vacancy in the Princeton school and will meet on Monday evening to consider them.

A Hillsville teacher is desired who can give instruction in physical culture and also in the eighth grade. The position will pay a fairly good salary.

Salaries in the county schools will run from $100 to $110 per month for teachers with standard certification. Some of the schools are located near to town, particularly the three vacancies in Wilmington township.

Superintendent Syling visited the Slappey Rock normal school yesterday in an effort to get teachers, and will make another visit tomorrow, but there doesn't appear any likelihood of his getting enough to fill the vacancies. In case he does not be proposes to visit some of the other normal schools.

Lack of applicants for the county school is in marked contrast to the applicants for city positions. In speaking of the city positions Supt. Syling said that he believed a large number of the applicants were teachers who already held positions other places and are anxious to get into the city.

Arrange Statistical Prohibition Survey

Money Appropriated For Educational Campaign To Be Spent Otherwise

Commissioner Doran Of Opinion Statistical Survey Will Be Beneficial

By ROBERT S. THORNDURGH
International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, June 28.—The $50,000 which Congress appropriated for educational purposes concerning prohibition and which some dry officers intended to use for "dry" propaganda to the country, drinking and other vice, isn't going to be devoted to furthering any non-prohibited sales campaign.

Instead Commissioner J. M. Doran with the approval of the treasury department, has launched a general survey aimed at compilation of accurate statistics as to what the government, the states and municipalities actually have done about prohibition since the 18th amendment was put into the constitution.

"Most of the trouble will be used in that way," Dr. Doran explained. "Heretofore the bureau has been without adequate funds to compile really accurate statistical information and other data of enforcement, but now it reverses possible."

"Many letters reach the bureau inquiring into the various phases of enforcement activities. It is important to answer these inquiries, especially those without indicated and unadvised information on all details of enforcement."

Will Be Valuable
Doran pointed out that this information will be of value to the president's crime commission and will be made available as soon as compiled. George W. Wickersham, chairman, recently said that one of the snags of the commission would have to cross in reaching its conclusion was the hazard of incomplete and inaccurate statistics as to law enforcement.

Doran explained that with the appropriation the bureau would be able to go not only into the details of the Federal government, but could compile information to the degree of cooperation obtained from state and municipalities, the scope of state prohibition laws, the various methods used in enforcement, and other factors of material value in inaugurating Federal enforcement drives.

Plans Made For Reopening Mine

International News Service
MARTINS FERRY, O. June 28.—Preparations were being made today for reopening of No. 7 mine of the Wheeling and Lake Erie Coal Mining company at Neffs, as result of the announcement of General Manager R. L. Ingram. The mine, employing about 250 men, has been idle for more than two years.

The company has abandoned its mines in West Virginia and will concentrate production in Ohio, according to the statement of Ingram. His explanation was that the Wheeling and Lake Erie company is leading a campaign to popularize Ohio coals.

Lumber Steamer Grounds; Rescue Crew By "Line"

International News Service
POINT REYES COAST GUARD STATION, Cal., June 28.—Rising a breeches buoy from the lumber steamer Hartwood, which went ashore here last night in a heavy fog, coast guardsmen today were removing the remaining members of the crew from the stricken vessel.

Captain C. M. Enstrom and the chief engineer are still aboard the doomed ship.

Other members of the crew, Mrs. Enstrom, her son, and the son of the first mate were rescued last night.

The Hartwood, a vessel of 846 gross tonnage, is firmly wedged between two huge rocks. Coast guard officers believe the ship will be a total loss.

Cunningham Will Be Arrested; Must Testify In Senate

International News Service
PHILADELPHIA, June 28.—Senator Thomas Cunningham is expected to be arrested early next week and again taken before the U. S. senate for questioning regarding the source of the $50,000 he contributed to Senator-elect William S. Vare's campaign fund in 1926.

A copy of the supreme court decision upholding the senate's right to arrest Cunningham has been forwarded to the federal office here and upon its receipt he is expected to be taken into custody.

Beautiful Lawn Will Set Off New Hospital

Carpet Of Green Being Laid About Jameson Memorial Hospital Prior To Opening

Institution Will Soon Be Completed And Ready For Dedication To Public

With only a few days' work remaining to put the finishing touches on the Jameson Memorial hospital, efforts are being centered now on grading the spacious lawn about the institution and planting the grass, which in a few months time, will make a beautiful carpet of green about the huge building.

The task of planting the grass about the hospital has been a big undertaking, but is being handled in the same thorough manner which has characterized the entire plan followed out in erecting the building and the nurses home adjoining.

Last fall and this spring, great quantities of "creeping bent" grass of the finest quality, used to a great extent in sodding golf courses, was planted on the grounds. A great quantity of fine grass was also planted.

After the work of grading the lawn had been completed, the sharp banks and slopes about the hospital were sodded. Where the slopes are more gentle, the work has been planted.

This latter operation is a most interesting one. After the ground has been prepared and rolled, great quantities of the bent were literally "pulled up by the roots, and strewn over the top of the soil. Then a thin covering of earth was placed over it.

This grass, grows like a creeping vine, sending down roots at each joint. The customary way of planting it is to chop it up in small sections, and to plant it in this manner. But because of the necessity for having the lawn completed as soon as possible, it is being planted in larger sections. In a few weeks time, the sprouts will be coming up through the ground, and the lawn will look as if it had been but sparsely sown. These sprouts, however, will continue spreading and in an incredibly short length of time, the long tendrils will begin creeping in every direction, sending down their roots, and sending up new blades from each joint.

Next summer, the lawn about the hospital should be a real thing of beauty.

No trees, shrubs, or flowers will be planted about the grounds. Only a great blanket of the finest green grass, will set off the magnificent building.

By the date for the opening, the lawn will begin to take on a semblance of its future appearance, and possibly by late fall, will be thickly matted and cover most of the grounds.

Final touches are also being put on the interior of the building. All equipment has been put in place, and most of the furniture has been installed. That which is lacking, is being received daily, and by the time for the opening date, a few weeks hence, will all be in place.

Mrs. David Jameson, wife of the donor of the splendid institution, who with her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Jameson McCreery, has given the nurses home adjoining, expects to announce plans for the opening of the hospital shortly.

Prisoner Escapes;

Is Soon Captured

International News Service.—YORK, Pa. June 28.—Kenneth Burns, under jail sentence for the theft of an automobile, essayed a bid for freedom from the York county prison that was successful Thursday—temporarily.

Burns escaped by scaling a high prison wall. A watchful guard saw Burns drop to the ground and ordered the fleeing man to halt. Burns kept on going and soon outdistanced his pursuer.

He was captured three hours later and returned to the jail. Burns is alleged to be wanted in a number of other Pennsylvania towns and warrants for his arrest, from these cities, are on file at the prison to act as detainers.

Montana Rancher Hunts Coyotes With Ski-Equipped Plane

GREAT FALLS, Mont., June 28.—Hunting coyotes by airplane, an unusual adventure in this section, even in good weather, was introduced to stockmen of the snowbound regions by Charles McGuire, Highwood rancher and aviator.

When deep snows made landing impossible, McGuire equipped his plane with skis in order that he might continue hunting predatory animals and saving losses to his herds.

The skis, six feet long and 18 inches wide, were designed and made by McGuire. With them he is able to soar over the wilderness, confident in his ability to land on the open range if his motor fails him. The skis have alleviated the necessity of clearing snow from his landing field at Highwood.

Due to the width of the skis, landing and takeoff is made easy, even in several feet of snow, as the runners do not sink far below the surface. Large bands of coyotes are prevalent in this section of Montana, and McGuire has found that extermination work have been speeded by use of his plane.

Use Barrels For Packing Grapes

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—In an effort to stabilize the grape juice industry of California shippers are packing their product in barrels instead of "lugs" or boxes.

In barrels the grapes are frozen and placed in cold storage until market conditions assure a profit. Then they are shipped to the point where a demand is found.

Officials say the new method will prevent flooding the country with grapes during the producing season and save vineyardists from recurrence of the depression that caused severe losses last year. Grapes are said to remain fresh six months in barrels.

A statistician estimates that every third person in the United States works for a living. According to subtraction this leaves one to become an amateur golf star and another to go into the boxing business.

$30,000 For School Prevents Spanking

Arkansas Man Leaves Sum For School With Odd Proviso

International News Service.—GREENWOOD, Ark., June 28.—The late E. S. Alexander, former school teacher, left his estate of $30,000 to the public schools of Greenwood with the provision that the spanking of pupils never be permitted. Not that Alexander wanted to put wrong ideas in the heads of the youth but merely because he was kind hearted.

This legacy, therefore, makes the scholastic halls of Greenwood schools safe for hooky playing, paper wad shooting, delays of the school swimming hole and Willie may even put pins in Mary's hair, without danger of the hickory stick or the leather strap.

How this system is going to work out remains to be seen but regardless, the only way Greenwood's public school system is to get the $30,000 is to disregard the spanking of students.

Meadville To Bar Hand-Bill Nuisance

MEADVILLE, June 28.—An ordinance to make it unlawful for any person or corporation to distribute handbills, samples or other advertising matter on porches, in stores or in motor vehicles without first securing the permission of the owner or custodian of the said property was introduced by Councilman George L. Maxwell at the regular session of the city council Tuesday night at the city hall. A section of the new bill, which passed first and second readings, provides a penalty of a $5 to $50 fine for each offense or imprisonment in the city jail of not more than three days.

LIGHTNING INSISTS ON KILLING HORSES

International News Service.—TYRO, Pa., June 28.—Shocked when an electrical storm broke here recently, Joe Perry, a farmer fearing his barn might be struck by a bolt of lightning and his team of horses killed, drove the animals into a pasture.

A bolt of lightning struck the animals, killing one and maiming the other so it had to be killed.

Eight Golf Balls Found In Dead Turtle

International News Service.—POPULAR BLUFF, Mo., June 28.—When a large turtle crawled out of the pond at the Country club golf course here recently and died for no good reason at all, caddies became puzzled and held a consultation over the body.

They decided to conduct a post mortem. When the turtle's stomach was opened, the caddies found eight perfectly good golf balls. The turtle, according to the caddies, believed it had found some eggs.

The caddies decided Mr. Turtle's death was due to acute indigestion.

Civil War Vets Meet In Reunion

Four Veterans Of 102nd Washington Infantry Meet In Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, June 28.—Veterans of the 102nd Washington Infantry had their first reunion today.

With festive steps, four members of the famous group walked into Soldiers' Memorial Hall yesterday, the only four who were able to attend the 50th anniversary of the surrender of the South at the conclusion of the civil war. There are forty-one of the members of the famous Pennsylvania Volunteers unit alive, but they were unable to attend because of broken health.

William Patten Griffith, 85, came from Brooklyn, N. Y., to attend the reunion. The other members were Thomas Reynolds, 80; J. M. Henton, 85 and William W. Himmelfarb, 81.

The unit's oldest member, John Hamilton, 87, of Hays, missed the reunion for the first time. He lay on his sickbed at Hays, and sent his family to represent him.

Garbage Scandal May Reach Courts

Pittsburgh's Controversy Seems Headed For Long Court Battle

By FRANCIS L. ARMSTRONG,
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

PITTSBURGH, June 26.—The "million dollar garbage scandal" of Pittsburgh today apparently was headed for the courts and possibly a long drawn out fight.

If City Controller Henry Oliver Evans and the council are to win back more than $1,000,000 alleged to have been withheld by the American Reduction company, holding a contract for disposal of the Pittsburgh garbage pail contents, they may have to take the whole matter through the county courts.

Evans and Councilman R. J. Alderice had proposed appointment of a judge of the court of common pleas, as arbitrator for a number of items revealed by an audit as having been charged to "expense" by the company. According to the contract, which has been in effect since 1921, the American Reduction company was to collect from the city a set amount per ton for disposal of garbage. All net profits from the transactions, in excess of $150 a ton, were to be retained by the city.

President of the Council James F. Malone today had been revealed as the man who promoted the audit, on rumors of irregularities.

W. F. Hill, president of the Reduction company, was questioned late yesterday regarding items which, according to Evans, were improperly charged to expenses, thereby reducing the amount of rebate due the city.

"Just trifles," Hill explained away such items as $500 dues for his membership in a club, political donations, Christmas cigars, and other items listed for a total of more than $12,000, on the company's books.

After Hill had waved away the "expenses" as "trifles," the Reduction company issued a formal statement declaring it would demand a trial of all charges "in open court."

Model Husband Is Mysteriously Missing

UNIONTOWN, Pa., June 26.—Authorities have been asked to assist in the search for J. H. Moon, 38, of High House, who came to Uniontown to go to work in the local radiator plant and then mysteriously disappeared. Moon, who has a wife and three children, never remained away from home over night and always told his wife where he was going.

Members of his family believe that he met with some misadventure. Moon was 5 feet tall, had lost the sight of one eye and his hearing was impaired. His disappearance has mystified the entire county.

An outside concern has offered to take over the entire state electric system of Pennsylvania and supply power at lower rates than now prevail.

Missionary At Westfield Church

Dr. W. M. Hayes, Missionary From China To Speak
Sunday Morning

Dr. W. M. Hayes, veteran missionary from China will speak Sunday morning at 10:30 in the Westfield Presbyterian church.

Dr. Hayes who has spent forty years on the China Missionary field is in this country on a short furlough. He expects to return to his work on the foreign field in the fall. During recent years he has been president of the theological seminary in China.

He is at the present time visiting relatives in New Wilmington.

Teachers of the Westfield Sunday school will meet Saturday evening at the manse. The superintendent, Guy Fullerton desires that all attend this meeting.

Plan Rebuilding Of Indiana Store Damaged By Fire

INDIANAPOLIS, June 26.—Rebuilding operations today were expected to be announced for the store and warehouse of J. M. Stewart and company, destroyed yesterday by fire at an estimated damage of more than $150,000.

The building was one of the landmarks of Indiana. From a financial standpoint the fire was believed to have been the most destructive ever to occur in the city.

Officials of the fire department today were investigating the exact cause of the conflagration.

Carbonized Tank Lets Go, Man Is Instantly Killed

MAHANOCY CITY, Pa., June 26.—Federal arrangements were being made today for Phillip Coyle, 38, who was instantly killed at Lakewood Park yesterday when a tank of carbonized gas, under six hundred pounds of pressure, exploded with terrific force.

Coyle was helping the proprietor of a soda fountain stand and was bending over the tank when the gas container suddenly burst, spraying steel splinters in all directions. Three young women customers and the proprietor escaped injury but Coyle was horribly maimed.

Coyle, married and the father of one child, was not employed at the stand but was helping the owner, a close friend in taking care of the Sunday rush.

And we detect a genuine Fourth of July flavor to the name of the yesterday when a tank of carbonized gas, under six hundred pounds of pressure, exploded with terrific force.

Would Invest State Supreme Court With New Governing Power

BEDFORD SPRINGS, Pa., June 28.—Action to remove the laws governing court rules of procedure from the hands of state legislators, and place it in the power of the state supreme court justices occupied the spotlight today at the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania bar association.
George E. Alter, of Allegheny county, as chairman of the committee considering this phase of Pennsylvania jurisprudence, had presented a draft of a bill to be introduced at the next general assembly, vesting in the supreme court the right to hand down rules, from time to time, governing the procedure and methods of pleas in all civil suits.
This power, members pointed out,
would enable the court charged with deciding complex questions of error in pleading to simplify the methods, keeping them in pace with changing times and conditions.
Laws, totalling 601, the largest number ever to be signed by the governor, were passed by the recent state legislative assembly. Others were vetoed and some that were introduced were not passed. These laws were analyzed by John H. Fertig, of the legislative reference bureau, to show that the trend is toward codification, rather than multiplication of laws.
Fertig's report classified these 601
laws as follows:
Amendments to present laws, 274.
New laws, 192.
Repealing of old laws, 87.
Validating of municipal bond issues,
etc., 20.
Supplements, codes, appropriations,
etc., 28.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Outing At Cottage Grove Thursday

Forty-Five Persons Attend;
Other News Notes Of The Seventh Ward

Approximately 45 were in attendance at an outing held Thursday at Cottage Grove. The outing was had by Rev. W. W. Smith, pastor of the Madison Avenue Christian church for the children who had attended his pre-Easter Bible classes during the past two years. Each year Rev. Smith conducts a series of pre-Easter classes at the conclusion of which there is some social event. This social event was not had until this Thursday when there was an outing at Cottage Grove.
The girls and boys were taken to the grove in automobiles driven by Mrs. Kenneth Waller, Mrs. J. M.
Bevan, Mrs. W. W. Wald, Mrs. Wm.
Blanton, Mrs. B. G. Freeburn, H. M.
Pulton and Rev. W. W. Smith. Charles N. Kiker transported the supplies in a truck with some boys.

Arriving at the Cottage Grove the afternoon was spent in swimming and outdoor games. Mr. Smith, Charles Kiker and J. B. Bumbaugh gathered the wood and built a bonfire. Early in the evening there was a wicker roast after which marshmallows were toasted.

The outing was very successful and an enjoyable time was had by all present. There was one out of town guest, Ruth Walters, of Warren, O.

SURPRISE PARTY

Mrs. Conrad Rapp was pleasantly surprised in her home on E. Clayton street Thursday evening when friends and neighbors gathered in her home.
The party event was a surprise farewell. The occasion being the Rapp family will soon move to Toledo, O.
to make their home.

The evening was spent informally.
At a later hour refreshments were served. Mr. Rapp has been working in Toledo the past year. The Rapp family will move there about the first of August.

As planned, in the morning there will be races for ladies, girls, boys and a field meet for the men. In the afternoon there will be two baseball games.

G. I. A. LODGE

Members of the Grand International auxiliary No. 453 of Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers had their lodge meeting Thursday afternoon in the city hall. The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Jack McCort.
During the afternoon the routine lodge meeting was conducted and lodge business transacted.

It was decided during the meeting to discontinue lodge meetings entirely during the next two months. This has been the custom the past summers.
The next meeting of the lodge will be the second Thursday of September.

Together

Mabel Wilson lodge No. 587 to Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen had their meeting Thursday evening in the Knights of Malta hall. Mrs.
Jane Campbell, president, presided.
During the evening there was a lodge business meeting and routine lodge work. During the business meeting Mrs. B. G. Freeburn was appointed press agent.

Also a committee of three was appointed for the lodge picnic. This committee is comprised of Mrs. B. G.
Freeburn, Mrs. Will Evans and Mrs.
Ralph Metzler.

Mabel Wilson lodge will have a joint picnic with members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen No. 955.
A committee of three from each of the two lodges will arrange for the event. Date and place for the event will be announced later. The picnic event will probably be during July.

The next meeting of the lodge will be in two weeks Thursday, July 11.

Modern Girls Found Taller And Thicker

CHICAGO, June 28.—Girls in all the universities and outside the colleges are growing taller and thicker, Mrs. Katherine Blunt of the University of Chicago, writing a book on the subject, has records from Vassar, Smith college, Stanford and the University of Chicago to prove it.

The Vassar student today averages almost two inches taller than her predecessor of 30 years ago. Dr. Blunt said. In 1891-1892 the average girl entering Vassar was 63.1 inches tall, weighed 117 pounds and had a gain of 24.3 inches. In 1923-1927 her height had increased to 64.9 inches, her weight to 123.9 pounds and her girth to 28.4 inches.

This change in height has been almost perfectly steady. If this is true of college girls it probably is true of girls everywhere in the country.

Diet, lighter clothing and outdoor life is given by Dr. Blunt as the cause.

Dry Agents Stage Wholesale Cleanup

tions to drying up the Pittsburgh area.

A truck and the moonshine were seized by agents after they had noticed several cars leave a garage with their floors covered with corn sugar.
One man was arrested.

Grading Campus At Westminster

Workers are busy with the work of grading the campus of Westminster college.

The campus has recently been surveyed and grading pegs placed. Workmen are now leveling the ground and removing the trees.

Work will be laid and all grading work will be finished by the time the student's return to the college in September. The Old Main Memorial is completed except for a few minor details.

Suits Are Filed Against Circus

Erie Folks Make Effort To Collect Damages For Injuries

ERIE, June 28.—The law firm of English, Quinn, Leontinus & Taylor, representing the Miller Brothers 101 Ranch show, which played this city on Tuesday, today placed bond in county court to the amount of $8,050, to satisfy attachments filed on Tuesday for damage suits against the wild west show company.
No statements of claim have been filed as yet in the damage action.
They will probably be brought to the court house this week, according to Attorney Tom Dunn, who represents three plaintiffs in the actions.
The damage suits are being filed as the result of the accident here three years ago, when the Miller Brothers show was playing on the lot at Eighth and Weschler avenue.
During the evening performance at that time a heavy wind storm blew down the tent, killing one man and injuring a number of other persons.
Another action against the company, filed by Attorney J. S. Johnson, was for the alleged illegal placing of signs on a building at Tenth and Parade streets.

West View Woman Killed By Train

(International News Service)
HOMESTEAD, June 28.—Mrs. Anna
Chaney, 32, of West View was dead today because she failed to notice that a train was entering the Pennsylvania railroad station here on track 1 instead of track 2, according to police reports.
Mrs. Chaney, with several other women, was waiting the train for Pittsburgh. But the route had been changed, police said, and when the train came in on the other track, the woman was unable to leap to safety quickly enough. She died fifteen minutes after being hit.

United Presbyterians Enjoy Annual Sunday School Picnic Event

300 Motor To Cascade Park On Thursday To Enjoy Activities

ELLWOOD CITY, June 28.—The annual picnic of the United Presbyterian Sunday School was held Thursday afternoon at Cascade Park and was attended by 300. The members and their families motored to the park in the afternoon and the children were entertained on the various amusements at the expense of the Sunday School. The men busied themselves in playing quoits.

At 7 o'clock the ladies served a delicious picnic dinner in the grove, which concluded the day's activities, all reporting a very pleasant day. Mrs. Olive Hesselberger was in charge of the dinner and E. C. Willig had charge of the program.

Frisco and Return

Philathea Class Meets Last Night

ELLWOOD CITY, June 28.—The Philathea class of the First Baptist church held their regular monthly meeting in the social rooms of the church last evening. Owing to a great amount of business to be taken care of the social hour was disposed of.

A large sum was collected for the treasury by fines imposed upon the members for wearing jewelry or jewelry. At the close of the business session a delicious lunch was served by the committee in charge.

The meeting then adjourned until September, discontinuing the meetings during July and August.

Men's Bible Class Met Last Night

ELLWOOD CITY, June 28.—The Allston Memorial Bible class of the Bell Memorial church held their regular meeting last evening at the home of Frank Blaine on the New Castle road.

The routine business was conducted followed by a social time. At a late hour refreshments were served.

Mrs. E. J. Reinheimer and son Junior, and Miss Carrie Reinheimer of Franklin avenue motored to New Castle today.

Suit In Equity Over Formation Of New Borough

Court Asked To Apportion Liabilities And Assets Of Wayne Township And Ellipt

Complications arising over the incorporation of Ellipt borough, which was formerly embraced in Wayne township, has led to the filing of a suit in equity at the county prothonotary's office in which the court is asked to straighten out the tangled financial situation.

Plaintiffs in the suit which is against Ellipt borough are Supervisors Peter Tilia, W. L. Friday and Lee Parker of Wayne township.

It is set forth in the bill that prior to the incorporation of Ellipt, Wayne township had an assessed valuation of $1,732,411. Of this amount $364,534 was assessed on property which is now a part of Ellipt. Before incorporation Wayne township owed the Citizens National bank of Ellwood City $5,000, to supervisors for 1927-8, $800. There was also a bill due the county of $5,357, being Wayne township's share of the Wampum-Chewton via duct, and estimated damages in connection with the viaduct of $1300.

Wayne township had on deposit in the Citizens National bank $517 and owned road equipment valued at $2,920. The difficulty which confronts the officials of Wayne township and also of the borough of Ellipt is to determine what would be an equitable share of indebtedness and assets by each, in relation to the assessed valuations before and after the incorporation of the borough.

Officials of Ellipt admit that the statement in the bill of equity sets forth the facts and join in the proceeding to have the court determine the matter. Date for hearing will be set later.

Country Club Will Have Holiday Dance

Golf, Bridge, Tea And Dinner-Dance Are Scheduled Activities For The Fourth

ELLWOOD CITY, June 28.—Invitations have been received for the annual Fourth of July celebration to be given in the Country Club. The committee in charge of the day's activities have made every effort to have a real day of sport and entertainment for the club members. Golf tournaments will form the afternoon's entertainment for the men, while a bridge-tee will be the diversion for the lady members, beginning at 2 o'clock. In the evening a dinner dance will be given, and special entertainment has been planned. Reservation must be made by July 2.

Hayden-Shaffer Wedding Event

ELLWOOD CITY, June 28.—Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock in St. Agatha Catholic church an interesting ceremony was performed, by the Rev. N. Schramm, assistant rector of the church, uniting in marriage Miss Leota Hayden, daughter of John D. Hayden of Spring avenue and Paul V. Shaffer, of Burnstown. Miss Lydia Hunt of Elizabeth was maid of honor and Jesse Hayden, brother of the bride served as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served in the Hayden home to the immediate families. The couple left for a short trip through Canada and on their return will make their home on Crescent avenue.

Tells Method To Fix Head Lamps

Autoists With Unadjusted Lights Are Potential Killers, Says Bunting

HARRISBURG, June 28.—"Ivy poisoning and bad headlamps usually cause a man's own fault. Both are caused by carelessness of a lack of knowledge. Ivy-poisoning is annoying only to the person who has it, there is no traffic to be interfered with—walk away one hundred and fifty feet, turn, and look at his lamps. If they glare—if the light hurts his eyes, they are out of focus and adjustment. They are a menace to all road users. To adjust them is not quite so simple, but it is not difficult. Place the car 25 feet distant from a wall on which a horizontal line has been chalked at the same height from the ground as the lamp centers. This is the 'danger line.' Turn on the lights—and cover one while working with the other. Using the focusing screw on the back of the lamp, get as bright a beam as possible on the wall. At no time should this beam rise above the 'danger line.' If the bright beam naturally falls above the 'danger line'—that is, if the beam at its brightest is above that line the lamp itself is 'aimed' wrong. Loosen the nut or locking device which holds the lamp to the car, and tilt the lamp downward until the beam is right. If the car is empty when these adjustments are made, the top of the beam should be kept approximately two to four inches below the danger line. The highways of Pennsylvania are now being put to their maximum use—but they will not yield maximum enjoyment so long as eight of every ten motor vehicles operate with glaring headlamps."

Lucky Children Indeed, If Their Mothers Know and Serve

SHREDDED WHEAT

With all the bran of the whole wheat

Children don't have to be coaxed to eat it—they like the crisp, crunchy shreds of baked whole wheat. They have to chew it—and that means sound teeth and good digestion. Paper inserts in each package offer a surprise for the children.

chief headlamp inspector of the bureau of motor vehicles views two of the troublesome problems of the summer season.

"Every operator of a motor vehicle the headlamps of which are out of adjustment is a potential killer, and when an accident occurs as a result of his glaring lamps he is as much responsible for what happens as though he intentionally caused a smash-up," Bunting asserted.

"The operator who says he does not know his lamps are out of adjustment confesses to a lack of knowledge that every car owner should have—a lack that questions his right to possess the driving privilege," Bunting continued.

"All he need do is stop his car on a level road or street—preferably where there is no traffic to be interfered with—walk away one hundred and fifty feet, turn, and look at his lamps. If they glare—if the light hurts his eyes, they are out of focus and adjustment. They are a menace to all road users."

"The highways of Pennsylvania are now being put to their maximum use—but they will not yield maximum enjoyment so long as eight of every ten motor vehicles operate with glaring headlamps."

Great Britain To Bar Trotzky

(International News Service) LONDON, June 28.—The labor cabinet has decided not to permit Leon Trotzky, exiled Russian Bolshevik leader, to enter England. The Daily Herald, semi-official labor organ, stated.

The cabinet's refusal, it was said, was based upon the fear that Trotzky's admission might prejudice negotiations for resumption of diplomatic relations between the British and Soviet governments.

"The next great task for science is to control the weather. The idea being to get enough rain for the green, and not enough to interfere with play."

Boston Lawyer Has Sub Safety Device

(International News Service)

BOSTON, June 28.—L. A. Andrews, prominent Boston lawyer was credited by Navy Yard officials with having invented the most feasible submarine saving apparatus they have seen in years.

Mr. Andrews, who resides at 1134 Chestnut street, Newton Upper Falls, called upon Commander Guy L. Davis at the Navy Yard with two patented models of an apparatus designed to raise submarines which, through accident, have sunk to the bottom.

The device is simple, yet is considered by Commander Davis to be the most practical method of raising in an upper berth.

submerged submarines yet invented. The invention consists of a 200 ton detachable lead keel which can be fastened to the bottom of the submarine and may be detached by controls located within the ship. In case of an accident which sends the boat to the bottom the crew of the submarine simply detached the heavy lead keel and the loss of the weight is calculated to enable the ship to rise to the surface.

Commander Davis announced that he would accompany Mr. Andrews to Washington to present the model before the Bureau of Navigation and other navy officials.

Scientists have found a prehistoric animal with joints that worked both ways. Probably one of Nature's laborer attempts to produce a creature that could get into a union suit in an upper berth.

Police Automobiles Are Bullet Proof

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, June 28.—Bullet-proof bauld chasing automobiles soon will make their appearance in Pittsburgh, equipped with the latest type of guns and tear gas.

Guns and tear gas are straight shots, the police believe. Chasing desperadoes through the streets in an automobile that is as open to attack as a squad car is not to the liking of police here.

The new machines will be armored with turret slots for guns, and will be equipped with bullet-proof glass. Peter P. Walsh, superintendent of police, satisfied himself that the glass is shatter proof, by extensive tests firing a 38-caliber revolver point-blank at a pane. The glass is bullet-proofed by layers of celluloid.

To protect the tires from being shot, they will be equipped with steel drops. One of the squad cars will be kept cruising the city twenty-four hours a day. The other will be kept for emergency calls.

"We must protect our men against desperate bandits," Walsh explained. "We can do this only with absolutely bullet-proof automobiles. The sooner we get them the better will be our chances to capture desperate gunmen."

Five Women Of Feminine 'Bloc' Proud Of Ages

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 28.—The 50-odd per cent of women—to judge from a curious public the sex of her age—is entirely disregarded by five of the eight members of the "feminine bloc" of congress in the new congressional directory.

This booklet, index to the past history and peculiarities of members, carries biographies edited by the members themselves.

Three of the "feminine bloc"—Rep. Pratt (R) of New York, Oldfield (D) of Arkansas and Kahn (R) of California—saw no reason for adding their ages to their biographies. While Reps. Rogers (R) of Massachusetts, Owen (D) of Florida, Norton (D) of New Jersey, McCormick (R) of Illinois and Langer (R) of Kentucky, boldly set out the date of their birth. Mrs. Langer is proud to say that she is a grandmother at 41.

La Guardia Shortest

Rep. F. B. La Guardia (R) of New York maintained his own record for the shortest biography. He supplied only his name. Sen. Cawley of Arkansas set out only his name, political party and home.

The longest histories carried in the directory of many activities of Sen. Walcott of Connecticut and Rep. Taylor of Colorado. Each has allotted 11 lines or about 450 words.

Rep. Crall (R) of California conveyed the information that his twin brother, Judge Charles S. Crall of Los Angeles and he "resemble each other in appearance, have always dressed alike and are pleased to be mistaken for each other." They were partners in law and served together in the Spanish-American War.

Brookhart Ironical

Sen. Smith Waldman Brookhart of Iowa, who often has engaged in political spats in the Senate, used his biographical space to take a fling at the Senator for seating Sen. Daniel Steck in 1925. He said that he received a certificate of election "but notwithstanding, the Senate of the United States disregarded the Iowa election laws and seated his Democrat opponent."

Sen. Cole Blaise of South Carolina volunteered the information in his sketch that he has served in more elective offices than any South Carolina date.

Sen. Tasker Oddie of Nevada says that he was one of the discoverers of the famous gold and silver mining camp of Tonopah and that Goldfield, another famous camp, came into being largely as a result of this discovery.

Killed When Auto Stalls On Track

BUTLER Pa., June 28.—Coroner William F. Pohl is investigating the death of John Bungar, 62, of Lyndora, who was instantly killed, late last night when the automobile in which he was riding was struck by a train on the Baltimore and Ohio tracks at the Biederville crossing.

Engineer J. H. Fulton, in charge of the train, expressed the belief today that Bungar's car stalled on the track. The engineer applied the brakes, but was unable to stop the train in time. Both of Bungar's legs were severed, his neck and both arms broken and body badly crushed, while the automobile was dragged about 100 feet and reduced to wreckage.

5 Day, 40 Hour Week Favored For Ukraine

(International News Service)
CHARKOV, June 28.—The Ukrainian Council of Trade Unions has gone on record in favor of a five day working week of 40 hours instead of the present six-day week of from 36 to 48 hours. All but two official holidays in the year, 12 in all, would be added to the workers' annual vacations. That is, workers would get 26 days off instead of 14.

The scheme is regarded as fine for the workers, but would boost production costs to such an extent that it is doubtful whether any state industry could afford to pay the wages for additional help.

Vets To Meet On Monday Evening

Members of the Harry L. McBride Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will hold their semi-monthly meeting in the Legion Home Building on Monday evening.

Reports will be received from the delegates to the state convention at this time, while plans for the coming picnic sponsored by the McBride Post at Cascade Park on July 10, will also be discussed.

The poster wouldn't let chance and the neighbors shape his clay. That system is suitable only for children.

HATHILDE RETURNS WITH FAMILY

Returning to Chicago for the first time since her marriage to Max Oser, Swiss riding master, in 1923, Mrs. Max Oser, the former Mathilde McCormick, granddaughter of John D. Rockefeller, is snapped as she arrived in the Windy City with her husband and children to be greeted by her father, Harold F. McCormick. The children are Anita, four, and Peter Max, two. The marriage created quite a stir in 1923, Mathilde's parents at first frowning on the match.

Philippines Need Linquist Operators

Service Curtailed Because Operators Cannot Speak Many Tongues

(International News Service)
BOSTON, June 28.—Telephone operators who can speak half a dozen languages will be required before the Philippine Islands can have long distance telephone lines. The great variety of dialects spoken on the islands is the chief difficulty in the way of long distance exchanges, the report of telephone officials reveals. At present, the Philippines boast of a number of local exchanges but only one inter-province line, used on the Isle of Negros by the resident sugar planters. Due to the ignorance of the native filipino, calls between widely separated localities would prove incomprehensible to native operators. The difficulty has been overcome in Bombay and Cairo by securing operators who speak a number of dialects fluently. This same solution will probably be used in the Philippines. If enough of these educated natives can be found to man the switchboards.

The number of instruments has increased 31 per cent in the past year, the report shows, as compared to a wire mileage increase of 35 per cent. The City of Manila still contains the greater proportion of Philippine phones with 73 per cent of the total. The increase in new installations outside of the city during the past year reached a figure of 59 per cent as compared to a 23 per cent increase in Manila. The outlying districts are fast becoming aware of the advantages of mechanical means of communication and a substantial increase in installations is expected during the remainder of the current year.

Long Distance Phoning Shows Big Increase

(International News Service)
BOSTON, June 28.—An average of 2,200,000 long distance telephone calls per day were handled throughout the United States in 1928, as against an average of only 2,084,000 in 1927, according to an announcement by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. Statisticians found that the total number of toll calls in 1928 was nearly 18 per cent greater than the preceding year.

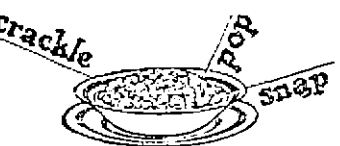

According to the announcement, about 95 per cent of all toll and long distance calls are now handled while the calling party remains at the telephone.

70 STEAM RAILWAYS USE MOTOR TRUCKING

EXTRA-POWERED and "KNOCKLESS"

—that's the new-type ATLANTIC GASOLINE

EASY STARTING. Without sacrifice of power, Atlantic Gasoline contains just enough of the higher or more volatile elements needed to let the spark take hold at low temperatures—when the motor is cold.

There is no mistaking the added power you get in this extraordinary new motor fuel which is being produced by one of the world's largest and most progressive petroleum refining organizations.

There is no imagination about the way it reduces fuel "knocks"—even when the going is slow and the pulling is hard.

Yet, with both these much-sought features, Atlantic Gasoline is amazingly easy-starting, remarkably quick on pick-up, marvelously clean—and complete-burning.

Not a single desirable motor fuel quality is sacrificed. It is without question the most efficient and most thoroughly satisfactory all-round gasoline you have ever used!

READY OBTAINABILITY. No matter how good a motor fuel may be, it is of little use to you unless you can get it when you want it. Atlantic is always near at hand. No other gasoline distributes system offers you such convenient and dependable service.

QUICK PICK-UP. Easy ignition, thru a scientifically balanced "chain of boiling points" makes Atlantic instantly responsive to the command of the throttle. Note Atlantic's agility in traffic!

EXTRA POWER. By bringing more of the higher power-producing elements of petroleum into the form that enables modern motors to utilize them fully, a pronounced degree of extra power has been developed in the new-type Atlantic Gasoline.

ATLANTIC GASOLINE

New-type, extra-powered, "knockless" Atlantic Gasoline is obtainable at all Atlantic dealers and service stations.

East Brook High Alumni Picnic At Cascade Thursday

Dr. Phillip Sargeant Is Elected East Brook High Alumni President

Members of the East Brook High school alumni association and their friends met at Cascade park Thursday evening for their annual picnic supper gathering. A large crowd was present and the classes were well represented.

Officers elected were Dr. Phillip Sargeant, president; Glen Patterson, vice president; Ruth Peterson, corresponding secretary; Maida Foster, recording secretary; and Norman Young, treasurer.

It was decided at the business meeting of the association that next year's meeting would be a banquet dinner rather than a picnic and the executive committee of officers will make the arrangements.

Farmers Turn On Insurance Companies

(International News Service)
INDIANAPOLIS, June 28.—When Indiana life insurance men turned farmers, the farmers retaliated by burning life insurance men.

farms which had been accepted as securities for loans. The insurance companies began to work the farms on the "chain store" plan, in many cases with favorable results.

Then the Indiana Farm Bureau conceived the idea of insuring its members on a co-operative basis. Hence the Federation through many of its members acting as agents, now is selling life insurance.

Rev. H. M. Shuman Is Greeted By Large Audience

Former Pastor Of The Alliance
Gospel Tabernacle Speaks
In This City

A service of great inspiration and consecration was held last evening at the Gospel Tabernacle, Pearson street, when a large audience greeted Rev. H. M. Shuman, a former pastor and now president of the Christian and Missionary Alliance. The Alliance is an extensive organization, operating throughout the United States and Canada and having missionaries in 19 mission fields throughout the world.

The song service was under the direction of Rev. T. J. Keenan of Niagara Street, Mr. R. Owey of People's Mission led in prayer. Rev. E. C. Anderson, pastor, was in charge of the service. A beautiful choir was given by Mrs. Ruby and Mrs. Wink, accompanied by three guitars, entitled "Take the Name of Jesus With You."

Rev. Shuman called to mind some reminiscences of the work here. Declaring that God is everything and man nothing, he began his message of the evening which was based on two outstanding things of Paul's life, and should be of every Christian's life. Our personal relation to Jesus and Service, our relationship to God's plan in this age.

A missionary vision, he declared, was like a new conversion. Therefore, enter into full consecration with God. God's method of sending out the first two missionaries indicate that he has a plan for every life, your life, the ultimate object of which is getting the Gospel to the uttermost part of the earth. Prayer was emphasized as vital to this consecration. A determination to never draw back from anything God says to do is necessary. Stop begging and teasing God—take something and thank God. The service closed with a hymn of consecration, several hymns having been raised indicating a new desire to go with God. Benediction was pronounced by Rev. Shuman.

Railroad Trespassers Assessed Fine, Costs

B. R. And P. Starts Move To Stop Trespassing On Its Property Here

The Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh railroad is inaugurating a strenuous campaign to put an end to trespassing on its property in this city and vicinity and especially in the vicinity of that section of its tracks out along Big Run to what is known as Cement Dam.

Only recently a boy was killed while trespassing on the freight trains of the company in that section of its property here and it is now proposed to arrest all persons found trespassing on the property of the company and turn them over to some alderman, where they will be fined.

Already Albert Baughman, lieutenant of police for that railroad, had arrested three boys found trespassing on the lines of the company. These boys are Frank McCoy, Claude Davis and Tony Kiodjeski, who were taken before a local alderman and charged with trespassing and riding the trains of the company. They were each assessed a fine of $5, which goes to the school district in cases like this, and $5 cost.

It is hoped that this activity will be sufficient to prevent further fatal accidents on the property of the company.

France Seeking Postponement Of War Debt Payment

(International News Service)
PARIS, June 23.—An immediate request that the United States government permit France to postpone payment of the $400,000,000 debt for war materials due on August 1 will be made by M. Aristide Briand, French minister of foreign affairs, it was announced today.

Following a lengthy debate on the question in the Chamber of Deputies last night, the foreign office made it known that Premier Poincare had requested M. Briand to inform Paul Claudel, French ambassador at Washington of the desire for formal postponement.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

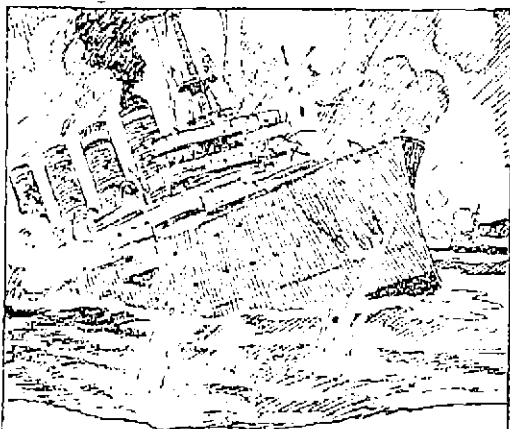

By J. Carroll Mansfield

The Story Of The World War
47—German Naval Victory At Coronel

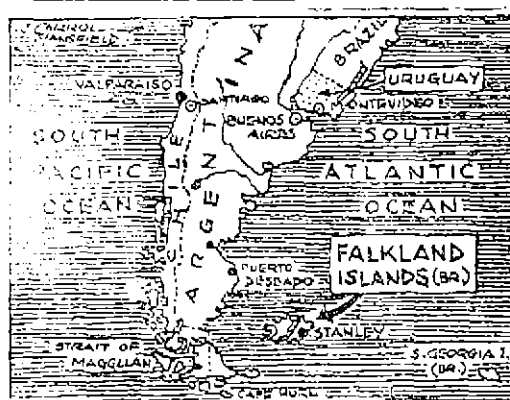

WHEN THE WORLD WAR BROKE OUT, THE GERMAN ADMIRAL VON SPEE WITH A SQUADRON OF FIVE POWERFUL CRUISERS—THE "ONSEINER", "SCHARNHORST", "LEIPZIG", "DRESDEN" AND "NURNBERG" WAS STATIONED IN THE SOUTH PACIFIC.

LATE IN OCTOBER, 1914, VON SPEE LEARNED FROM INTERCEPTED BRITISH WIRELESS MESSAGES THAT THE BRITISH CRUISERS "GOOD HOPE", "MONMOUTH" AND "GLASGOW" HAD TOUCHED AT CORONEL ON THE CHILEAN COAST. HE SET OUT AT ONCE IN SEARCH OF THE ENEMY.

VON SPEE ENCOUNTERED THE THREE BRITISH CRUISERS OFF CORONEL ON NOVEMBER 1ST. THE BRITONS BRAVELY ACCEPTED BATTLE, BUT WERE OVERWHELMED. THE "GOOD HOPE" AND THE "MONMOUTH" WENT DOWN WITH FLAGS FLYING, AND ONLY THE "GLASGOW" ESCAPED FROM THE FIGHT.

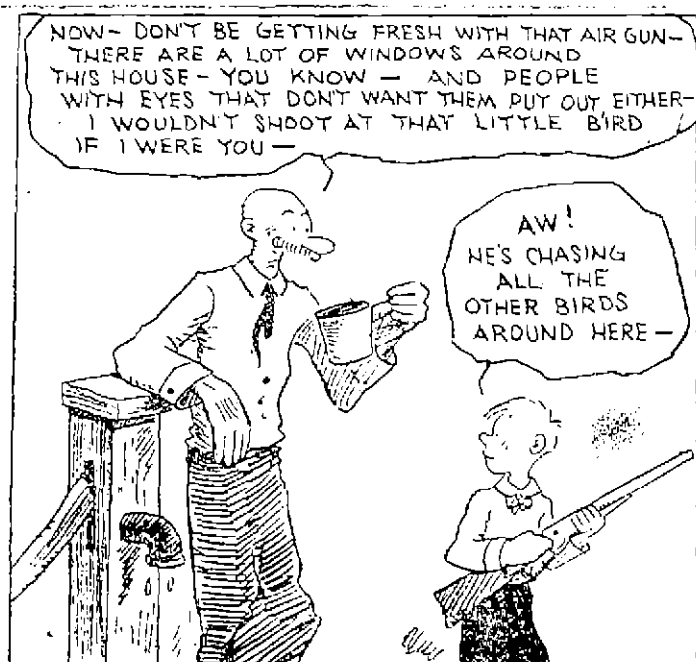

ONE MONTH AFTER THIS VICTORY, VON SPEE STEERED FOR THE FALKLAND ISLANDS, A LONELY OUTPOST OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE IN THE SOUTH ATLANTIC, WITH THE OBJECT OF SEIZING THE PORT OF STANLEY, VALUABLE FOR ITS SHUG HARBOR AND PRECIOUS SUPPLY OF COAL.

Espinosa And Sarazen Tied For Golf Lead

Italian And Spaniard Fighting It Out For Lead In National Open Tourney

WALTER HAGEN IS AWAY OFF COLOR

By DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service
WINGED FOOT GOLF CLUB
Manhasset, N. Y., June 28.—Al Espinosa and Gene Sarazen, great golfers both, were deadlocked at the head of the field in the national open golf championship today with a score of 142 strokes for two rounds of the classic event.

Sarazen followed his 71 of yesterday with another 71 this morning.

Espinosa replied with a 35-37-72, which with his 70 of the first round, brought him to the club house in a dead heat with the Italian.

Hagen Is Out.

Bobby Jones, the leader yesterday with a 69, had started on his second round at this juncture. Walter Hagen, the perennial British champion, had started and also finished—finished with the round and virtually with the tournament. He took a 39-42-81 for one of his worst rounds of championship history and closed the day with an aggregate of 157.

Sarazen was out in a par 36 himself. Then, putting like a demon, he came back in 35 to defeat par by a stroke for the second time in as many days.

His card follows:

Out 444 444 255-36

Espinosa's card follows:

Out 344 453 345-35

In 444 534 454-37 72-142

In some respects Espinosa's round was more meritorious than Sarazen's for the latter got home before the wind began to blow a gale which was late in the morning. Even with his early start Gene began to wobble in the wind on the late holes and only his putter kept him at the pace. Espinosa also was putting well but an 8-footer on the 18th that was needed to give him the lead faked him by a split inch. The Chicagoan hit his second over the bank at the 12th green. He found himself with a mean lie but his rebound was to hit a meat out to within two feet of the pin for a birdie. This was a golf shot if ever there was one.

Erie Directors Vote Dividend

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, June 28.—Directors of the Erie railroad today declared a semi-annual dividend of $2 a share on the first and second preferred stocks, restoring dividends, dropped 20 years ago.
Both preferred stocks are placed on a $4 annual dividend basis, payments to be made on July 31 and December 31 to stock of record July 15 and December 15 respectively.

Electric Company To Construct Fence

Will Keep Children From Coming In Contact With Hazard

Louis Round, district manager, Penn.-Ohio system, today requested councilman permission to have a decorative fence erected the east side of Front street property owned by the company.
He pointed out that the fence would prevent children straying around property where there may be danger. It would also protect persons from getting too close to the railroad bank.
Council ordered Solicitor White to draw up the necessary resolution which will be revocable at any time.

Tomorrow, the 29th, being the Feast of St. Peter, Apostle and Martyr, there will be Holy Communion in Trinity church at 9:30 a. m.

Announce Gospel Centre Programs

Interesting Speakers Are Booked To Deliver Messages Next Week

Considerable interest has been shown in the services held at the Gospel Centre tent, located two blocks from East Washington street on South Mercer street.

On Sunday evening, special music will be rendered by the Castle Trio and musical numbers also by two young violinists, Clarence Thompson and Arnold Bergquist. Miss Elyse Barquist will accompany them at the piano. On that night, Rev. E. J. Bergquist, president of the Centre, will preach on the subject "Why Jesus Died."

Rev. David D. Sleppy, pastor of the Mahoningtown M. E. church, will preach on Tuesday evening at eight o'clock; on Wednesday evening, Frank Tyler, one who is greatly interested in Christian work, while the Rev. Oscar Woods of the Bethany Lutheran church will speak on Wednesday.

Each service is preceded with 20 minutes of inspiring congregational song service. The public is cordially invited to attend.

West Side Committee To Convene Friday

There will be a meeting of the West Side Playground committee and all interested parties in the west side playground at 8.00 p. m. Friday, June 28. The purpose of the meeting is to get reports of the committees and definite arrangements for the construction of the wading pool.

U. P. Young People Presses For Action On State Decision

Davies Does Not Believe That State Decision Should Be Accepted

Councilman D. O. Davies today assailed colleagues to convene and discuss the recent letter from the bureau of municipalities, internal affairs department, Harrisburg. Davies told colleagues "We cannot stand still. I want to know if there is anything we can do or anyway of making improvements, despite the interpretation as placed on Davies letter in which the state has refused to approve of disapproval of certificates for Lyndal street paving."
Davies said he took the attitude that it is a debt by the residents to be assessed and not the city and that the state evidently has no right to act on it, according to his understanding.

Combine For Social Hold Joint Entertainment At Second Church On Thursday Night

Approximately 40 persons gathered for the joint social of the Young People's Christian Union, of the First, Second and Highland United Presbyterians, luncheon held on the dining room of the Second church, Church street, last night.
In charge of the entertainment were Miss Florence Warner and Miss Patricia Howell. Members of the Second church, society were in charge of the refreshments. In the afternoon, dances were enjoyed during the time.
On Saturday evening, July 1, the three societies will unite for union meeting. They will entertain during July and August. Entertainment will be given by the Young People's Christian Union, the Young Men's Christian Association and the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Hazel Hume and Mrs. E. H. Wynn are chairmen.
